PLEASE NOTE THAT THIS IS NOT CURRENTLY AN OFFICIAL TEXT OF THE ANTIOCHIAN WESTERN RITE VICARIATE.

While great care was taken to use only works in the public domain in these United States of America, there were a few cases where this was not possible. We are thankful to have such great giants upon whose shoulders we stand. These works are used in this Book according to fair use.

Davis, C. Lance, ed. The Anglican Office Book. Chester: Whithorn Press, 2023. This was indispensable, for the adapted Office portions of the Feasts of Our Lady of Walsingham and St. Joseph of Arimathea.

And a special thanks must be given to GregoBase (<https://gregobase.selapa.net/>), without which the notation for the Invitatory and Office Hymns simply would not be feasible. I am especially thankful to the transcribers Albert Bloomfield, Benedictine monk, BruceL, Mateusz Ciesiółka, Dominique CRO-CHU, pcouderc, Pierre François, Harpa Dei, HdP, Andrew Hinkley, Nguyễn Thị Thiên Tuán Hoàng, Joerg Hudelmaier, Jakub Jelínek, MarkM, marteo, Br Michael, Br Michael OSB, rcarey, and Christopher Tatum.

Preface

We are blessed to publish this necessary hymnal and companion to the 2024 Proposed Book of Common Prayer. The Prayer Book Hymnal supplements the Book of Common Prayer by providing liturgical elements, which may prove expedient to divine worship, along with notation for the hymns. For the convenience of the priest, the frequently said prayers of the Mass (when his BCP may not be easily accessed) are provided. For both the Office and the Mass, the most common settings and common chants are set as Office and Communion Services. Regarding the propers, the Office and Mass propers for the minor Feast Days (not found in the BCP), as well as the regular ferial hymns, are provided. Additionally, the Office propers which are omitted in the Red Letter Days are also provided. These have all been typeset to Gregorian notation, for the ease of use by cantors and the Congregation.

For all these precious liturgical elements, this book may rightly be called a hymnal. However, the chief treasure is the set of ‘Devotional Hymns’. For these, the best of various hymnary traditions have been chosen. Uniquely beneficial as opening and closing hymns, we hope that these provide spiritual benefits for those who use them, especially since this is the first Orthodox hymnal to include many of these musical pieces.

We hope this Prayer Book Hymnal provides benefit and utility to those living within, or interested in, the English Orthodox tradition.

SUNDAY INVITATORY HYMN IN SUMMER

Father we praise thee, now the night is o-ver, Active and watchful, stand we all be-fore thee; Singing we of-fer prayer and med-ita-tion: Thus we a-dore thee. 2. Mon-arch of all things, fit us for thy mansions; Ban-ish our weakness, health and wholeness sending;
 Bring us to heav-en, where thy Saints u-nit-ed Joy without end-ing.
 3. All-Ho-ly Father, Son, and equal Spir-it, Trin-i-ty bless-ed send us thy sal-va-tion; Thine is the glor-y, gleaming and re-sounding Through all cre-a-tion A-men.

SUNDAY INVITATORY HYMN IN WINTER

IV

his day the first of days was made, When God in light the world arrayed; Or when his Word a-rose a-gain And, conquering death, gave life to men. Slumber and sloth drive far away; Earlier a-rise to greet the day, And ere its dawn in heaven unfold The heart's de-sire to God be told Unto our prayer that he at-tend His all-cre- ating power extend And still re-new us, lest we miss Through earthly stain our heavenly bliss. That us, who here this day re-pair To keep the Apostle's time of prayer, And hymn the qui-et hours of morn, With bless-ed gifts he may a-dorn. For this, Re-deemer, thee we pray That thou wilt wash our sins away And of thy lov-ing-kindness grant

What-ever of good our spir-its want: That exiles here awhile in flesh
Some earnest may our souls re-fresh Of that pure life for which we long Some foretaste of the heavenly song O Fath,er that we ask be done Through Je-sus Christ, thine only Son; Who, with the Ho-ly
Ghost and thee Doth live and reign e-ternal-ly A-men.

WEEKDAY INVITATORY HYMN

¶ The following Invitatory Hymn is said on weekdays when Mattins is anticipated the evening prior.

O God, Cre-a-tor of the world, And King of heav-en, sending light Most beau-ti-ful to clothe the day, And grace of sleep to come by night, 2. That so in rest our slacken'd limbs Grow strong for work as dawns the day, And wea-ried minds be fresh a- gain,

As light drives anxious cares a- way. 3. With bounden thanks, with offer'd vows, With prayers and hymns our debt we pay, Be-seeing thee to keep us safe As night draws nigh, as ends the day. 4. To thee our inmost heart doth cry, Our voice re-sounds in mel-o-dy, For thee chase love with longing yearns, Our humbled soul doth worship thee.

5. And when dense blackness falls to close The day in thick-est folds of night, Let not our faith such darkness know, But by that faith let dark be light. 6. Allow thou not our souls to rest; Our sins in rest, we pray thee, bind: Let purge, re-fresh-ing faith be strong To cool all night gives place to dawn of day; So may the er-rors of the night

Be shat-tered by the gift of light. 4.O hear us, as to thee we pray
That all our faults be cut away; So may the tongues that sing to thee
Re-sound thy praise perpet-ually. 5.O Father, that we ask be done Through Je-sus Christ, thine only Son; Who, with the Ho-ly Ghost and thee, Doth live and reign e-ternal-ly. A-men.

our prayers to grant. 2. The shadows of our minds dispel And put to flight the hounds of hell, Let tempting sleep be thrust away Lest slothfulness our souls dismay. 3. So, Christ, have mercy on us all,
Who, trust-ing thee, be-liev-ing fall In prayer, entreat-ing clemency And hymn thee with our psalmo-dy. 4. O Father, that we ask be done Through Je-sus Christ, thine only Son; Who, with the Ho-ly Ghost and thee, Doth live and reign e-ternal-ly. A- men.

WEDNESDAY INVITATORY HYMN

Rul-er and Cre- a-tor, see Thy people here, and set us free From weight of sleep and dreaming's bane As we a-rise in prayer

The musical notation consists of six staves of square neumes on a four-line staff system. The notes are black squares of varying sizes, with vertical stems extending upwards or downwards. Vertical bar lines divide the staves into measures. The lyrics are written below each staff.

a-gain. 2. O ho-ly Christ, we pray thee, spare Thy sinful ones, and grant our prayer, Who break the qui- et night to raise Our glad confession of thy praise. 3. Our hands and minds to thee be-long; By night we of-fer them in song, As once of old the Prophet taught, And Paul in ver-y deed hath wrought. 4. Thou se- est every act of sin,
Nor hide we all the ill with-in; With contrite hearts to thee we pray That thou wouldst purge our sins away. 5. O Father, that we ask be-done Through Je-sus Christ, thine only Son; Who, with the Ho-ly
Ghost and thee, Doth live and reign e-ternal-ly. A- men.

IV

A s night with darksome folds unfurled Conceals the co-lours of the world: Thee we implore and thee confess The Judge of hearts' true righteousness. 2. Grant us to leave our guilt be-hind, And wash thou clean our soil-ed mind, And give us grace, O Christ, we pray, That far from sin we steer our way. 3. Be-hold our mind in sin's de-cay,
 By sin's corro-sion worn away; It strives to shake off shades of wrong
 And flee to thee, to thee be-long 4. As thou dispell-est Na-ture's night
 Do thou re-store our inward light, That we at last may find our rest
 In that glad brightness of the blest. 5. O Father, that we ask be done

Through Je-sus Christ, thine only Son; Who, with the Ho-ly Ghost and thee, Doth live and reign e-ternal-ly. A-men.

FRIDAY INVITATORY HYMN

 hou Trin-i-ty in U-ni-ty Who rul-est all things mighti- ly, Bow down to hear the songs of praise Which we, thy wakeful servants, raise. 2. We leave our beds and flock to thee While night's dark hours flow si- lently, And stand be-fore thee to implore: Thy heal-ing grace up-on us pour. 3. And if by night in Sa-tan's snare We may have stumbled, un-a-ware, Still let thy glorious pow'r and might Destroy our ill; thy heav'n-sent light. 4. Let not our flesh de-filment know, Nor torpor make our hearts sink low; Keep from our spir-it tainting sin

 That cools the ho-ly flame with-in. 5. For this, Re-deemer, thee we pray
 Upon us pour thy heav'ny ray That as our dai-ly course we run
 No e-vil actions may be done. 6. O Father, that we ask be done Through Je-sus Christ, thine only Son; Who, with the Ho-ly Ghost and thee, Doth live and reign e-ternal-ly. A- men.

SATURDAY INVITATORY HYMN

IV
 God of mercy pass-ing thought, Who has the world contrived and wrought: In pow'r, es-sen-tial U-ni-ty, In Per-son, blessed Trin-i-ty: 2. Do thou in love accept our lays Of mingled pen-itence and praise: And set our hearts from er-ror free, More ful-ly to re-joice in thee. 3. Our reins and hearts in pit-y heal, And with thy chast'ning fires anneal: Gird thou our loins, each passion quell,

And every harmful lust expel. 4. And as we now the hours of night
With songs u-nit-ed put to flight, Bestow, with thine a-bundant hand,
The gifts of our blest father-land. 5. O Father, that we ask be done Through Je-sus Christ, thine only Son; Who, with the Ho-ly Ghost and thee, Doth live and reign e-ternal-ly. A-men.

blest Cre-a-tor of the light, Who makest the day with rad-i-ance bright, And over the form-ing world didst call The light from cha-os first of all. 2. Whose wisdom joined in meet a-ray
The morn and eve, and named them day: Night comes with all its darkling fears, Re-gard thy people's prayers and tears. 3. Lest, sunk in sin and whelmed with strife, They lose the gift of endless life; While thinking but the thoughts of time, They weave new chains of woe and crime. 4. But grant them grace that they may strain, The heavenly gate and prize to gain: Each harmful lure a-side to cast,

And purge a-way each e-rror past. 5. O Father, that we ask be done

of Day Light's fountain and e- ternal spring, Thou Morn, the morn

il-lumin-ing! 2. Glide in, thou ver- y Sundi-vine; With ev-er-last-ing brightness shine: And shed abroad on ev-ery sense The Spir- it's light and influ- ence. 3. Thee, Father, let us seek a-right The Father of perpet-ual

light, The Father of al-mighty grace, Each wile of sin away to chase

4. Our acts with cour-age do thou fill; Blunt thou the tempter's tooth of ill: Mis-fortune in-to good convert, Or give us grace to bear unhurt.

5. Our spir-it-s, what-so-ever be-tide, In chaste and loy-al bod-ies guide;
Let Faith, with fervour un-alloyed The bane of falsehood still a-void.

6. And Christ our dail-y food be nigh, And Faith our dail-y cup supply
So may we quaff, to calm and bless, The Spir-it's rapturous. hol-iness 7. Now let the day in joy pass on: Our mod-e-sty like early dawn,
Our faith like noontide splendour glow, Our souls the twi-light ne-ver

TUESDAY MATTINS OFFICE HYMN

IV
 T he winged her-ald of the day Proclaims the morn's approachingray: And Christ the Lord our souls excites, And so to endless life invites. 2. Take up thy bed, to each he cries Who sick, or wrapp'd in slumber lies: And chaste, and just, and so-ber stand And watch; my coming is at hand. 3. With earnest cry, with tearful care, Call we the Lord to hear our pray'r: While suppli-ca-tion, pure and deep, Forbids each chast-en'd heart to sleep. 4. Do thou, O Christ, our slumbers wake;

Do thou the chains of darkness break: Purge thou our former sins away,
And in our souls new light display. 5. All laud to God the Father be;
All praise, e-ternal Son, to thee; All glor-y, as is ev-er meet,
To God the Hol-y Par-a-clete. A-men.

TUESDAY EVENSONG OFFICE HYMN

E arth's mighty Mak-er, whose command Rais'd from the sea and sol-id land; And drove each billowy heap away, And bade the earth stand firm for aye: 2. That so the soil might herbage yield, And blossoms fair to deck the field, And golden fruit and harvest bear, And pleas-ant food for man pre-pare. 3. Our spir-it's rankling wounds ef-face With dew-y freshness of thy grace: That grief may cleanse each deed of ill,

 And o'er each lust may tri- umph still. 4. Let every soul thy law obey,
 And keep from every e-vil way: Re-joice each promis'd good to win,
 And flee from every mor-tal sin. 5. O Father, that we ask be done
 Through Je-sus Christ, thine only Son, Who, with the Ho-ly Ghost and thee, Shall live and reign e-ternal-ly. A-men.

Dawn sprinkles all the east with light; Day o'er the earth is glid-ing bright; Morn's glitt'ring rays their course be-gin; Farewell to darkness and to sin. 2. Each phantom of the night de-part, Each thought of guilt for-sake the heart: Let every ill that darkness brought Beneath its shade, now come to naught. 3. So that last morning, dread and great,
Which we with trembling hope await, With bless-ed light for us shall glow, Who chant the song we sang be-low. 4. All laud to God the Father

SUNDAY MATTINS OFFICE HYMN

M ak-er of all, et-ernal King, Who day and night about dost bring: Who wea-ry mort-als to rel-ieve Dost in their turn the sea-sons give: 2. Now chanticleer proclaims the day, And calls the sun's aw-ak-ening ray, The wandering pilgrim's guid-ing light, That marks the watches night by night. 3. Roused at the note, the morning star Heaven's dusky veil uplifts a-far: Night's vagrant bands no longer roam, But from their dark ways hie them home. 4. The encouraged sail-or's fears are over, The foaming billows rage no more: Lo! even the ver-y Church's Rock Melts at the crow-ing of the cock. 5. O let us then all ardent rise;

The cock re-bukes our slumbering eyes, Be-stirs who still in sleep would lie And shames who would their Lord den-y. 6. New hope his clar-ion note a-wake, Sickness the feeble frame for-sakes, The robber sheathes his law-less sword, Faith to the fall-en is re-store-d. 7. Look on us, Je-su, when we fall, And with thy look our souls re-call: If thou but look, our sins are hone, And with due tears our par-don won. 8. Shed through our hearts thy piercing ray, Our souls' dull slumber drive aw-away:

Thy Name be first on every tongue, To thee our earliest prais-es sung.

9. All laud to God the Father be; All praise, e-ternal Son, to thee;

All glor-y, as is ev-er meet, To God the Hol-y Par-a-clete. A-men.

blest Cre-a-tor of the light, Who makest the day with rad-i-ance bright, And over the form-ing world didst call The light from cha-os first of all: 2. Whose wisdom joined in meet a-ray The morn and eve, and named them day: Night comes with all its darkling fears,

Re-gard thy people's prayers and tears. 3. Lest, sunk in sin and whelmed with strife, They lose the gift of endless life; While thinking but the thoughts of time, They weave new chains of woe and crime. 4. But grant them grace that they may strain The heavenly gate and prize to gain:

Each harmful lure a-side to cast, And purge a-way each e-rror past.

5. O Father, that we ask be done Through Je-sus Christ, thine on-ly hou Brightness of the Father's ray, True Light of light and Day of day, Light's fountain and e-ternal spring, Thou Morn, the morn

il-lumin-ing! 2. Glide in, thou ver-y Sun di-vine; With ev-er-last-ing brightness shine: And shed abroad on every sense The Spir-it's light and

influ- ence. 3. Thee, Father, let us seek a-right, The Father of perpet-u-al

light, The Father of almighty grace, Each wile of sin away to chase.

4. Our acts with cour-age do thou fill; Blunt thou the tempter's tooth of ill: Mis-fortune into good convert, Or give us grace to bear unhurt.

5. Our spir- its, what-so- ever be- tide, In chaste and loy-al bod-ies guide;

Let Faith, with fervour un-alloyed The bane of falsehood still a-void.

6. And Christ our dai-ly food be nigh, And Faith our dai-ly cup supply:

So may we quaff, to calm and bless, The Spir- it's rapturous ho- li-

ness. 7. Now let the day in joy pass on: Our mod-es-ty like early dawn,

know. 8. See! morn pursues her shin-ing way: True Morning, all thy beams display! Son with the mighty Father one, The Father whol-ly in the Son. 9. All laud to God the Father be; All praise, e-ternal Son, to thee;

All glo-ry, as is ev-er meet, To God the Ho-ly Par-a-clete. A- men.

great Cre- a-tor of the sky, Who wouldest not the floods on high With earthly wa-ters to confound, But mad'st the firmament their bound: 2. The floods a-bove thou didst ordain; The floods be-low thou didst restrain: That moisture might at-temper heat, Lest the parch'd earth should ru- in meet. 3. Upon our souls, good Lord, bestow

The gift of grace in endless flow: Lest some renew'd de-ceit or wile

Of former sin should us beguile. 4. Let Faith dis-cov-er heav'nly light;

So shall her ray di-rect us right: And let this Faith each er-ror chase,

And nev-er give to falsehood place. 5. O Father, that we ask be done

T he winged her-ald of the day Proclaims the morn's approaching ray: And Christ the Lord our souls excites, And so to endless life invites. 2. Take up thy bed, to each he cries Who sick, or wrapped in slumber lies: And chaste, and just, and so-ber stand And watch; my coming is at hand. 3. With earnest cry, with tearful care, Call we the Lord to hear our prayer: While suppli-ca-tion, pure and deep, Forbids each chast-en'd heart to sleep. 4. Do thou, O Christ, our slumbers wake;

Do thou the chains of darkness break: Purge thou our former sins away,

And in our souls new light display. 5. All laud to God the Father be;

All praise, e-ternal Son, to thee; All glo-ry, as is ev-er meet, To God

2 Let us come before his presence with • thanksgiving : and shew ourselves • glad in him with psalms.

3 For the Lord is a • great God : and a great • King above all gods.

4 In his hand are all the corners • of the earth : and the strength of the hills is • his also.

5 The sea is his, and • he made it : and his hands prepared • the dry land.

6 O come, let us worship and • fall down : and kneel before the • Lord our Maker.

7 For he is the • Lord our God : and we are the people of his pasture, and the • sheep of his hand.

8 To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden • not your hearts : as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation • in the wilderness.

9 When your fathers • tempted me : proved me, • and saw my works.

10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, • and said : It is a people that do err in their hearts, for they • have not known my ways;

Blessed Be the Lord

B less-ed be the Lord God of Is-ra- el; * for he hath vis- it-ed and re-deemed his people; And hath rais-ed up a mighty sal-va-tion for us, * in the house of his servant Da-vid; As he spake by the mouth of his ho-ly Prophets, * which have been since the world be-gan;
That we should be sav-ed from our en-en-mies, * and from the hand of all that hate us. To per-form the mercy promis-ed to our forefathers, * and to remember his ho-ly cov-e-nant; To per-form the oath which he swore to our forefather Abra-ham, * that he would give us;
That we be- ing de-liv-er-ed out of the hand of our en-en-mies * might serve him without fear; In ho-li-ness and righteousness be-fore him, * all the days of our life. And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: * for thou shalt go be-fore the face of the Lord to pre-pare his ways; To give knowledge of sal-va-tion unto his people * for the re-mission of their sins, Through the tender mercy of our God; *

whereby the day-spring from on high hath vis-it-ed us; To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shad-ow of death, * and to guide our feet into the way of peace. ¶ Glo-ry be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Ho-ly Ghost. ¶ As it was in the be-ginning, is now, and ev-er shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Athanasian Creed

1.D

ho-so- e-ver would be sa - ved * ne- e-deth be-fo-re all things to hold fast the Catho- lick Faith.

2 Which Faith except a man keep whole • and undefiled : without doubt he will perish • eternally.

3 Now the • Catholick Faith is this : that we worship one God in Trinity, and the Trinity • in Unity;

4 Neither • confusing the Persons : nor divid • ing the substance.

5 For there is one Person of the Father, • another of the Son : another • of the Holy Ghost;

6 But the Godhead of the Father, and of the Son, and of the • Holy Ghost is all one : the glory equal, the majesty • co-eternal.

7 Such as the Father is, • such is the Son : and such • is the Holy Ghost.

8 The Father uncreated, the Son • uncreated : the Holy Ghost • uncreated;

9 The Father infinite, • the Son infinite : the Holy • Ghost infinite;

10 The Father eternal, the • Son eternal : the Holy • Ghost eternal.

11 And yet there are not • three eternals : • but one eternal

12 As also there are not three uncreated, nor • three infinites : but one infinite, and one • uncreated.

13 So likewise the Father is almighty, • the Son almighty : the Holy • Ghost almighty;

14 And yet there are not • three al mightyies : • but one almighty.

15 So the Father • is God, the Son God : • the Holy Ghost God;

16 And yet there • are not three Gods : • but one God.

17 So the Father is • Lord, the Son Lord : • the Holy Ghost Lord;

18 And yet there • are not three Lords : • but one Lord.

19 For like as we are compelled by the • Christian verity : to confess each Person by himself to • be both God and Lord;

20 So are we forbidden by the • Catholick religion : to speak of • three Gods or three Lords.

21 The Father • is made of none : nor created, • nor begotten.

22 The Son is • of the Father : not made, nor created, • but begotten.

23 The Holy Ghost is • of the Father : not made, nor created, nor begotten, • but proceeding.

24 There is therefore one Father, not three Fathers; • one Son, not three Sons : one Holy Ghost, • not three Holy Ghosts.

25 And in this Trinity there is no • before or after : • no greater or less;

1.D

But all three Per-sons are co e- ternal to-gether * and co- e - qual.

27 So that in all ways, • as is aforesaid : both the Trinity is to be worshipped in Unity, and the Unity • in Trinity.

28 He therefore that • would be saved : let him thus think • of the Trinity.

FURTHERMORE it is necessary to • eternal salvation : that he also believe faithfully the Incarnation of • our Lord Jesus Christ.

30 Now the right faith is that we • believe and confess : that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, • is both God and man.

31 He is God, of the substance of the Father, begotten • before the worlds : and he is man, of the substance of his Mother, • born in the world;

32 Perfect • God perfect man : of reasoning soul and human • flesh subsisting;

33 Equal to the Father as • touching his Godhead : less than the Father as • touching his manhood.

34 Who although • he be God and man : yet he is not two, • but is one Christ;

35 One however, not by conversion of • Godhead into flesh : but by taking • manhood into God;

36 One • altogether : not by confusion of substance, but by unit • y of person.

37 For as reasoning soul and • flesh is one man : so God and • man is one Christ;

38 Who suffered for • our salvation : descended into hell, rose • again from the dead;

39 Ascended into heaven, sat down at the • right hand of the Father : from whence he shall come to judge • the quick and the dead.

40 At whose coming all men must rise again • with their bodies : and shall give account • for their own deeds.

41 And they that have done good will go into • life eternal : they that have done evil into • eternal fire.

KHIS is the • Catholick Faith : which except a man do faithfully and steadfastly believe, he • cannot be saved.

v. Glory be to the Father, • and to the Son : and • to the Holy Ghost;

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and • ever shall be : world • without end.
Amen.

Glory Be to God on High

Glo- ry be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glo-ri- fy thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glo- ry, O Lord God, heav'ny King, God the Father Almighty. O Lord, the only-be-gotten Son, Je-sus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that tak-est away the sins of the world, have mercy up-on us.
 Thou that tak-est away the sins of the world, re-ceive our prayer.
 Thou that sitt-est at the right hand of God the Fa-ther, have mercy up-on us. For thou only art ho- ly; thou on-ly art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Ho- ly Ghost, art most high in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther. Amen.

Liturgical Hymns My Soul Doth Magnify

My Soul Doth Magnify the Lord

M y soul doth magni-fy the Lord, * and my spir-it hath rejoic-ed in God my Saviour. For he hath re-garded * the lowli-ness of his handmaid-en. For be-hold, from henceforth * all gen-er-a-tions shall call me bless-ed. For he that is mighty hath magni-fi-ed me; *

and ho-ly is his Name. And his mercy is on them that fear him * throughout all gen-er-a-tions. He hath show-ed strength with his arm; *

he hath scat-tered the proud in the im-ag-i-na-tion of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat, * and hath ex-alt-ed the humble and meek. He hath fill-ed the hungry with good things; * and the rich he hath sent empty away. He re-member-ing his mercy hath holpen his servant Is-ra-el; * as he promi-sed to our forefathers, Abra-ham and his seed, for ev-er. ¶ Glo-ry be to the Fa-ther, and to the Son, * and to the Ho-ly Ghost. ¶ As it was in the be-ginning, is now, and ev-er shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Symbolum Athanasianum

Quam nisi quisque íntegram inviolatámque serváverit, * absque dúbio in ætérnum períbit.

Fides autem cathólica hæc est: * ut unum Deum in Trinitáte, et Trinitátem in unitáte venerémur.

Neque confundéntes persónas, * neque substántiam separántes.

Alia est enim persóna Patris, ália Fílii, * ália Spíritus Sancti:

Sed Patris, et Fílii, et Spíritus Sancti una est divínitas, * æquális glória, coætérna majéstas.

Qualis Pater, talis Fílius, * talis Spíritus Sanctus.

Incréátus Pater, increátus Fílius, * increátus Spíritus Sanctus.

Imménsus Pater, imménsus Fílius, * imménsus Spíritus Sanctus.

Ætérnus Pater, ætérnus Fílius, * ætérnus Spíritus Sanctus.

Et tamen non tres ætérni, * sed unus ætérnus.

Sicut non tres increáti, nec tres imménsi, * sed unus increátus, et unus imménsus.

Similiter omnípotens Pater, omnípotens Fílius, * omnípotens Spíritus Sanctus.

Ita Deus Pater, Deus Fílius, * Deus Spíritus Sanctus.

Ut tamen non tres Dii, * sed unus est Deus.

Ita Dóminus Pater, Dóminus Fílius, * Dóminus Spíritus Sanctus.

Et tamen non tres Dómini, * sed unus est Dóminus.

Quia, sicut singillátim unamquámque persónam Deum ac Dóminum confitéri christiána veritáte compéllimur: * ita tres Deos aut Dóminos dícere cathólica religióne prohibémur.

Pater a nullo est factus: * nec creáitus, nec génius.

Fílius a Patre est: * non factus, nec creáitus, sed génius.

Spíritus Sanctus a Patre: * non factus, nec creáitus, nec génius, sed procédens.

Unus ergo Pater, non tres Patres: unus Fílius, non tres Fílii: * unus Spíritus Sanctus, non tres Spíritus Sancti.

Et in hac Trinitáte nihil prius aut postérius, nihil majus aut minus: * sed totæ tres persónæ coætérnæ sibi sunt et coæquáles.

Ita ut per ómnia, sicut jam supra dictum est, * et únitas in Trinitáte, et Trínitas in unitáte veneránda sit.

Qui vult ergo salvus esse, * ita de Trinitáte séntiat.

ed ne-ce-ssár-i- um est ad æ-térnam sa-lú-tem, * ut Incarnat-

i- ó-nem quoque Dómi-ni nostri Je-su Chri-sti fi dé-li-ter cre-dat.

Est ergo fides recta ut credámus et confiteámur, * quia Dóminus noster Jesus Christus, Dei Fílius, Deus et homo est. Deus est ex substántia Patris ante sácula génius: * et homo est ex substántia matris in sáculo natus.

Perféctus Deus, perféctus homo: * ex ánima rationálí et humána carne subsístens.

Æquális Patri secúndum divinitátem: * minor Patre secúndum humanitátem.

Qui licet Deus sit et homo, * non duo tamen, sed unus est Christus.

Unus autem non conversióne divinitátis in carnem, * sed assumptióne humanitátis in Deum.

Unus omnínō, non confusióne substántiæ, * sed unitáte persónæ.

Nam sicut ánima rationális et caro unus est homo: * ita Deus et homo unus est Christus.

Qui passus est pro salúte nostra: descéndit ad ínferos: * tértia die resurréxit a mórtuis.

Ascéndit ad cælos, sedet ad déxteram Dei Patris omnipoténtis: * inde ventúrus est judicáre vivos et mórtuos.

Ad cujus advéntum omnes hómines resúrgere habent cum corpóribus suis; * et redditúri sunt de factis própriis ratiónem.

Et qui bona egérunt, ibunt in vitam ætérnam: * qui vero mala, in ignem ætérnum.

ALMA REDEMPTORIS MATER

From I Evensong of Advent I until II Evensong of the Purification, inclusive.

Gra- cious Mother of our Re-deemer, for ev-er a-bid-ing, Heav-en's gateway, and star of o-cean, O succour the people, who, though fall-ing, strive to rise a-gain. Thou Maid-en who bar-est thy ho-ly Cre-a-tor, to the wonder of all na-ture; Ev-er Vir-gin, af-ter, as be-fore thou re-ceiv-edst that A-ve From the mouth of Gabri-el; have compas-sion on us sinners.

AVE, REGINA CÆLORUM

From Compline of the Purification until Compline of Holy Wednesday, inclusive.

Queen of the heav-ens, we hail thee, Hail thee, La-dy of all the Angels; Thou the dawn, the door of morning Whence the world's true light is ris- en: Joy to thee, O Vir-gin glo-ri-ous, Beau-ti-ful be-yond all other; Hail and farewell, O most gra-cious, In-ter-cede for us alway to Je-sus.

REGINA CÆLI

From Compline of Holy Saturday until I Evensong of Trinity Sunday, exclusive.

The musical notation consists of three staves of three-line staffs. The first staff begins with a large, hollow circle (O) followed by a breve rest. The lyrics "Queen of heav-en, be joy-ful, al-le-lu- ia; Be-cause he whom" are written below the staff. The second staff begins with a breve rest, followed by the lyrics "so meetly thou bar- est, al-le-lu- ia, Hath a- ris- en, as he promised,". The third staff begins with a breve rest, followed by the lyrics "al-le- lu- ia: Pray for us to the Father, al-le- lu- ia." The notation uses black square note heads and vertical stems.

MARY, WE HAIL THEE, SIMPLE TONE

From I Evensong of Trinity Sunday until I Evensong of Advent I, exclusive.

M ar-y, we hail thee, Mother and Queen compassion-ate;
Mar-y, our com-fort, life and hope, we hail thee. To thee we ex-iles, children of Eve, lift our cry- ing. To thee we are sighing, as mournful and weep-ing, We pass through this vale of sorrow. Turn thou therefore, O our inter-ces-sor, Those thine eyes of pit-y and lov-ing-kindness upon us sinners. Hereaf-ter, when our earthly ex-ile shall be ended, Show us Je-sus, the bless-ed fruit of thy womb. O gen-tle, O tender, O gracious Vir-gin Mar-y.

MARY, WE HAIL THEE, SOLEMN TONE

From I Evensong of Trinity Sunday until I Evensong of Advent I, exclusive.

Mary, we hail thee, Mother and Queen compassionate; Mary, our com-fort, life and hope, we hail thee. To thee we e-xiles, children of Eve, lift our cry-ing. To thee we are sigh-ing, as mournful and weep-ing, We pass through this vale of sorrow. Turn thou therefore, O our in-ter-ce-ssor, Those thine eyes of pi-ty and lov-ing-kindness u-upon us si-nners. Hereaf-ter, when our earth-ly e-xile shall be en-ded, Show us Je-sus, the ble-ssed fruit of thy womb. O gen-tle, O tender, O gracious

Vir-gin Ma-ry.

COMMUNION SERVICE ONE - MASS OF THE GRACE OF GOD*Ten Commandments*

¶ In response to the first nine Commandments, the following is sung.

ord, have mercy up-on us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

¶ In response to the final Commandment, the following is sung.

ord, have mercy up-on us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts, we be-seech thee.

Lord, Have Mercy Upon Us

ord, have mercy up-on us. iij. Christ, have mercy up-on us. iij. Lord, have mercy up-on us. iij.

Glory be to God on High

Glo-ry be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glo-ri-fy thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glo-ry, O Lord God, heav'nly King, God the Father Almighty. O Lord, the only-be-got-ten Son, Je-sus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that tak-est away the sins of the world, have mercy up-on us. Thou that tak-est away the sins of the world, re-ceive our prayer. Thou that sitt-est at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy up-on us. For thou only art ho-ly; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Ho-ly Ghost, art most high in the glo-ry of God the Father. Amen.

Nicene Creed

I
be-lieve in one God the Father Almighty, Mak-er of heav'n and earth, And of all things vis- i-ble and invis- i-ble: And in one Lord Je-sus Christ, the only-be-got-ten Son of God; Be-got-ten of his Father be-fore all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Ver-y God of ver-y
God; Be-got-ten, not made; Be- ing of one substance with the Father;
By whom all things were made: Who for us men and for our sal-va-tion came down from heav-en, And was incarnate by the Ho- ly Ghost of the Vir-gin Mar-y, And was made man: And was cru-ci-fied al-so for us under Pontius Pi-late; He suf-fered and was bur-ied:

And the third day he rose a-gain according to the Scriptures: And ascended into heav-en, And sitt-eth on the right hand of the Father:

And he shall come a-gain, with glo-ry, to judge both the quick and the dead; Whose kingdom shall have no end. And I be-lieve in the

Ho-ly Ghost, The Lord, and Giv-er of Life, Who pro-ceed-eth from the Father; Who with the Fa-ther and the Son to-gether is worshiped and glo- ri-fied; Who spake by the Prophets: And I be-lieve one, ho-ly, catho- lic, and ap-ostol- ic Church: I acknowl-edge one Baptism for the re-mission of sins: And I look for the Res- urection of the dead:

And the Life of the world to come. Amen.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Ho-ly, Ho-ly, Ho-ly, Lord God of hosts, Heav'n and earth are full of thy glo-ry: Glo-ry be to thee, O Lord Most High. Bless-ed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord. Ho-sanna in the Highest.

O Lamb of God

OLamb of God, that tak-est away the sins of the world,

O Lamb of God

The musical notation consists of four horizontal lines representing a staff. The first measure begins with a large, hollow circle (an oval) on the top line, followed by a series of small black squares (heads) connected by vertical stems, each with a short horizontal stroke (tail). This pattern repeats across the staff. The lyrics "Lamb of God, * that tak-est away the sins of the world," are written below the staff. The second measure continues the same pattern, and the lyrics "have mercy up-on us. O Lamb of God, * that tak-est away the sins" follow. The third measure continues the pattern, and the lyrics "of the world, have mercy up-on us. O Lamb of God, * that tak-est" follow. The fourth measure continues the pattern, and the lyrics "away the sins of the world, grant us thy peace" follow.

CHRISTIANS, TO THE PASCHAL VICTIM

Chris-tians, to the Paschal Vic-tim off-er your thankful prais-es.

A Lamb the sheep re-deemeth: Christ, who only is sin-less, re-concil- eth sinners to the Father. Death and life have contended in that combat stu-pendous: the prince of life, who died, reigns immor-tal. Speak,

Ma-ry, de-clar-ing what thou saw-est way-far-ing: The tomb of Christ, who is liv-ing. The glor-y of Je-su's Re-surrection; Bright angels a-ttesting, the shroud and napkin rest-ing. Yea, Christ my hope is a- ris-en:

to Ga-li-lee he goes be- fore you. Happy they who hear the witness,

Ma-ry's word be-liev-ing a-bove the tales of Jew ry de-ceiv-ing.

Christ indeed from death is ri-sen, our new life obtain-ing: have mercy,

DAY OF WRATH AND DOOM IMPENDING

Day of wrath and doom impending, Da-vid's word with Si-by'l's blending: Heav'n and earth in ashes ending. Oh, what fear man's bosom rendeth When from heav'n the judge de-scendeth, On whose sentence all de-pendeth! Wondrous sound the trum-pet flingeth, Through earth's se-pulchres it ringeth, All be-fore the throne it bringeth.

Death is struck, and na-ture qua-king, All cre-a-tion is a-wak-ing, To its judge an answer ma-king. Lo! the book, ex-act-ly worded, Wherein all hath been re-corded, Thence shall judgement be a-war ded.

When the judge his seat attain-eth, And each hidden deed arraigneth, Nothing un-a-veng'd remain-eth. What shall I, frail man, be plead-ing?

Who for me be inter-ced-ing, When the just are mercy need-ing?

King of ma-jest-y tremendous, Who dost free sal-va-tion send us,

Fount of pi-ty, then befriend us! Think, kind Je-su, my sal-va-tion

Caus'd thy wondrous Incarna-tion: Leave me not to repro-ba-tion.

Faint and wea-ry thou hast sought me: On the Cross of suff-ring bought me: Shall such grace be vainly brought me? Righteous judge, for sin's pollu-tion Grant thy gift of abso-lu-tion Ere the day of re-tri-bu-tion. Guilt-y, now I pour my moan-ing: All my shame with anguish owning: Spare, O God, thy suppliant groan-ing. Through the sinful Mar-y shriv-en, Through the dy- ing thief forgiv-en, Thou to me a hope hast giv-en. Worthless are my prayers and sighing;

Yet, good Lord, in grace comply- ing, Rescue me from fires undy- ing.
With thy sheep a place pro-vide me, From the goats a-far di-vide me,
To thy right hand do thou guide me. When the wicked are confounded, Doom'd to flames of woe unbounded: Call me, with thy Saints surrounded. Low I kneel, with heart submission, See, like ashes, my contri-tion: Help me in my last condi-tion. Ah! that day of tears and mourning, From the dust of earth re-turning, Man for judgement must pre-pare him. Spare, O God, in mer- cy spare him:

Lord, all-pit-ying, Je-su blest, Grant them thine e- ternal rest. A- men.

Liturgical Hymns Before Him Bending

Paraliturgical Hymns

THEREFORE, WE BEFORE HIM BENDING

The musical notation consists of six staves of square neumes on a four-line staff system. The first staff begins with a large capital 'T'. The lyrics are integrated with the music, appearing below each staff.

herefore we, be- fore him bending, This great Sacrament revere; Types and shad-ows have their ending, For the new-er rite is here;

Faith, our outward sense befriending, Makes our inward vi-sion clear.

Glo-ry let us give and bless-ing To the Father and the Son, Honour, thanks, and praise address-ing, While e-ternal ag-es run; Ev-er too his love confess-ing Who from One with Both is One. A- men.

TANTUM ERGO

The musical notation consists of three staves of three-line Gregorian chant notation. The first staff begins with a large capital 'T' and the Roman numeral 'III'. The lyrics for this section are: 'antum er-go Sacraméntum Ve-ne-rémur cérnu-i: Et antí-'. The second staff continues the lyrics: 'quum do-cuméntum No-vo ce-dat rí-tu-i: Praestet fi-des suppleméntum'. The third staff concludes the hymn: 'Sénsu- um de-fé-ctu-i. 2. Ge-ni-tó-ri, Ge-ni-tóque Laus et ju-bi-lá-ti-o, Sa-lus, ho-nor, vir-tus quoque Sit et be-ne-dí-cti-o: Pro-ce-dénti ab u-nóque Compar sit lau-dá-ti-o. A-men.'

Thy neighbor by foul calumny;
Defend his innocence from blame,
With charity hide his shame.

10. Thy neighbor's wife desire thou not,
His house, nor aught that he hath got
But wish that his such good may be
As thy heart doth wish for thee.

11. God these commandments gave, therein
To show thee, son of man, thy sin,
And make thee also well perceive
How man for God ought to live.

12. Help us, Lord Jesus Christ, for we
A Mediator have in thee;
Without thy help our works so vain
Merit naught but endless pain.

Who, by the Master's hand
Led through the deathly waters,
Repose in Eden land.
7. O happy ones and holy!
Lord, give us grace that we Like them, the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with thee:
There, past the border mountains,
Where in sweet vales the Bride
With thee by living fountains
Forever shall abide!

Te laeta, mundi Conditor.

MAKER of earth, to thee alone
Perpetual rest belongs;
And the bright choirs around thy throne
May pour their endless songs.

2 But we,—ah holy now no more!
Are doomed to toil and pain;
Yet exiles on an alien shore
May sing their country's strain.

3 Father, whose promise binds thee still
To heal the suppliant throng,
Grant us to mourn the deeds of ill
That banish us so long;

4 And, while we mourn, in faith to rest
Upon thy love and care,
Till thou restore us with the blest
The song of heaven to share.

And God the Holy Ghost,
To thee be praise, great Three in One,
From thy created host. Amen.

For us he bore the Cross's death;
For us at length gave up his breath.

Jesu quadragenariae.

c. 9th cent. Tr. T. A. L.

O JESU Christ, from thee began
This healing for the soul of man,
By fasting sought, by fasting found,
Through forty days of yearly round;

From 'Magdalen Hymns,' 1760 (?).

The musical score consists of three staves of music. The top staff uses a treble clef, the middle staff an alto clef, and the bottom staff a bass clef. The key signature changes between measures, indicated by sharps and flats. Measures 1-2 start in G major (no sharps or flats). Measure 3 starts in E major (one sharp). Measures 4-5 start in A major (two sharps). Measure 6 starts in D major (one sharp). The time signature is common time throughout. Measures 1-2 have a dotted half note followed by a quarter note. Measures 3-6 begin with a half note.

3 Therefore behold thy Church, O Lord,
And grace of penitence accord
To all who seek with generous tears
Renewal of their wasted years.

4 Forgive the sin that we have done,
Forgive the course that we have run,
And show henceforth in evil day
Thyself our succour and our stay.

5 But now let every heart prepare,
By sacrifice of fast and prayer,
To keep with joy magnificil
The solemn Easter festival.

6. What language shall I borrow to thank thee, dearest friend,

For this thy dying sorrow, thy pity without end?

O make me thine forever, and should I fainting be,

Lord, let me never, never outlive my love to thee.

7. My Shepherd, now receive me; my Guardian, own me thine.

Great blessings thou didst give me, O source of gifts divine.

Thy lips have often fed me with words of truth and love;

Thy Spirit oft hath led me to heavenly joys above.

8. Here I will stand beside thee, from thee I will not part;

O Saviour, do not chide me! When breaks thy loving heart,

When soul and body languish in death's cold, cruel grasp,

Then, in thy deepest anguish, thee in mine arms I'll clasp.

9. The joy can never be spoken, above all joys beside,

When in thy body broken I thus with safety hide.

O Lord of Life, desiring thy glory now to see,

Beside thy cross expiring, I'd breathe my soul to thee.

10. My Saviour, be thou near me when death is at my door;
Then let thy presence cheer me, forsake me nevermore!
When soul and body languish, oh, leave me not alone,
But take away mine anguish by virtue of thine own!
11. Be thou my consolation, my shield when I must die;
Remind me of thy passion when my last hour draws nigh.
Mine eyes shall then behold thee, upon thy cross shall dwell,
My heart by faith enfolds thee. Who dieth thus dies well.

- SING we triumphant hymns of praise,
New hymns to heaven exulting raise:
Christ, by a road before untrod,
Ascendeth to the throne of God.
- 2 The holy apostolic band
Upon the Mount of Olives stand,
And with the Virgin-mother see Jesu's resplendent majesty.
- 3 To whom the Angels, drawing nigh,
'Why stand and gaze upon the sky?
This is the Saviour!' thus they say,
'This is his noble triumph-day!'
- 4 'Again shall ye behold him, so
As ye to-day have seen him go;
In glorious pomp ascending high,
Up to the portals of the sky.'

5 * O grant us thitherward to tend,
And with unwearied hearts ascend
Toward thy kingdom's throne, where thou,
As is our faith, art seated now.

6 * Be thou our joy and strong defence,
Who art our future recompense:
So shall the light that springs from thee
Be ours through all eternity.

- Unison.* 7. O risen Christ, ascended Lord,
All praise to thee let earth accord,
Who art, while endless ages run,
With Father and with Spirit One.
Amen.

Mag. Ant. Lift up thine eyes, † O Jerusalem, and see the power of the King: behold, the Saviour cometh to loose thee from thy chain.

Tuesday

Ben. Ant. Before they came together † Mary was found with child of the Holy Ghost, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. Seek ye the Lord † while he may be found: call ye upon him while he is near, alleluia.

Wednesday

Ben. Ant. Out of Sion † shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

Mag. Ant. After me † cometh one mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose.

Thursday

Ben. Ant. Blessed art thou † among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

Mag. Ant. I will wait † upon the Lord my Saviour: and I will look for him while he is near, alleluia.

Friday

Ben. Ant. Lo, there cometh one † that is both God and Man, of the house of David, to sit upon the throne, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. Out of Egypt † have I called my Son: he shall come to save his people.

Saturday

Ben. Ant. Fear not, † O Sion, behold thy God cometh, alleluia.

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

¶ The Hymns & Versicles are of the First Sunday of Advent (p. 293), with the following Antiphons.

Mag. Ant. Come, O Lord, in peace; † visit us with thy salvation, that we may rejoice before thee with a perfect heart.

Ben. Ant. He shall sit upon the throne † of David, and of his kingdom there shall be no end, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. Blessed art thou, † O Mary, for thou hast believed the Lord: and there shall be a performance in thee of those things which were told thee from the Lord, alleluia.

THE SECOND WEEK OF ADVENT*Monday*

Ben. Ant. From heaven there cometh † the Lord, the Ruler, and in his hand are honour and dominion.

Mag. Ant. Behold the King shall come, † the Lord of the earth, and he shall take away the yoke of our captivity.

Tuesday

Ben. Ant. The Lord shall arise upon thee, † O Jerusalem, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

Mag. Ant. The voice of one crying † in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

Wednesday

Ben. Ant. Behold I send my messenger, † and he shall prepare my way before thy face.

Mag. Ant. Sion, † thou shalt be renewed, and shalt see thy righteous One, he that cometh unto thee.

Thursday

Ben. Ant. Thou, O Lord, † art he that is to come, for whom we look, to save thy people.

Mag. Ant. He that cometh after me † is preferred before me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose.

Friday

Ben. Ant. Say to them: † Ye that are of a fearful heart, be strong: for behold the Lord our God shall come.

Mag. Ant. Sing unto the Lord † a new song; and his praise from the end of the earth.

Saturday

Ben. Ant. The Lord shall set up an ensign † for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel.

MAGNIFICAT ANTIPHONS BEFORE CHRISTMAS

¶ The Magnificat Antiphon is always taken from here on these days.

16 December: O Sapientia

Advent III

18 December: O Radix Jesse

ROOT OF JESSE, † which standest for an ensign of the people, at whom kings shall shut their mouths, unto whom the Gentiles shall seek: Come and deliver us, and tarry not.

19 December: O Clavis David

KEY OF DAVID, † and Sceptre of the house of Israel; that openest and no man shutteth, and shuttest and no man openeth: Come, and bring the prisoners out of the prison-house, them that sit in darkness and the shadow of death.

20 December: O Oriens

DAY-SPRING, † Brightness of the Light everlasting, and Sun of righteousness: Come and enlighten them that sit in darkness and the shadow of death.

21 December: O Rex gentium

KING OF NATIONS, † and their Desire; the Cornerstone, who makest both one: Come and save mankind, whom thou formedst of clay.

22 December: O Emmanuel

EMMANUEL, † our King and Lawgiver, the Desire of all nations and their Salvation: Come and save us, O Lord our God.

23 December: O Virgo virginum

VIRGIN OF VIRGINS, † how shall this be? for neither before thee was any seen like thee, nor shall there be after. Daughters of Jerusalem, why marvel ye at me? The thing which ye behold is a divine mystery.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

¶ The Hymns & Versicles are of the First Sunday of Advent (p. 293), with the following Antiphons.

Mag. Ant. Before me † there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me: unto me every knee shall bow, and me shall every tongue confess.

Ben. Ant. Now when John had heard † in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, and said unto him: Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?

Mag. Ant. Art thou he † that should come, or do we look for another? Go and shew John those things which ye do see: the blind receive their sight, the dead are raised, and the poor have the gospel preached unto them, alleluia.

THE THIRD WEEK OF ADVENT

Monday

Ben. Ant. There shall come forth † a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord: and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

Mag. Ant. All generations † shall call me blessed: for God hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.

Tuesday

Ben. Ant. Thou, Bethlehem, † in the land of Juda, shalt not be the least: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

Mag. Ant. Awake, awake, † arise, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Sion.

¶. Herod was exceeding wroth, and slew many children.

¶. In Bethlehem Judah, the city of David.

Ben. Ant. These are they † which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins: and they follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth.

Evensong

¶ The Office Hymn is of Mattins with the following Versicle & Antiphon.

℣. Beneath the altar all the Saints do cry aloud.

℟. Shall not our blood be avenged, O our God.

Mag. Ant. Then were innocent children † slain instead of Christ by a wicked ruler; the very sucklings were put to death: spotless, they follow the Lamb himself, and say for ever: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

SUNDAY WITHIN THE NATIVITY OCTAVE

¶ In the Daily Office, the Hymns are of Christmas Day (p. 301), with the following.

℣. All the ends of the world have seen, alleluia.

℟. The salvation of our God, alleluia.

Mag. & Ben. Ant. While all things † were in quiet silence, and that night was in the midst of her swift course, thine Almighty Word, O Lord, leaped down out of thy royal throne, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. The Child Jesus † increased in wisdom and stature in the sight of God and man.

I JANUARY. CIRCUMCISION OF OUR LORD

¶ In the Daily Office, the Hymns are of Christmas Day (p. 301), with the following.

℣. The Lord declared, alleluia.

℟. His salvation, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. God, † for his great love wherewith he loved us, hath sent his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, alleluia.

℣. The Word was made flesh, alleluia.

℟. And dwelt among us, alleluia.

Ben. Ant. A great and wondrous mystery † is made known to us this day; a new thing is wrought in both natures: God is made man; that which was, remained, and that which was not, he assumed; suffering no confusion, nor yet division.

℣. The Lord declared, alleluia.

℟. His salvation, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. Great † is the mystery of the inheritance: the womb of her that knew not man is become the temple of the Godhead: by taking flesh of her, he was no way defiled: all the nations shall gather, saying: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

2 JANUARY. MOST HOLY NAME OF JESUS*I Evensong*

J e-su! the ver-y thought is sweet; In that dear name all heart-joys meet: But sweet-er than the honey far The glimpses of his pres-ence are. 2. No word is sung more sweet than this, No name is heard more full of bliss, No thought brings sweet-er comfort nigh Than Je-sus, Son of God Most High. 3. Je-su! the hope of souls for-lorn, How good to them for sin that mourn! To them that seek thee, O how kind! But what art thou to them that find? 4. No tongue of mor-tal can express,
 No let-ters write its bless-edness: A-lone who hath thee in his heart Knows, love of Je-sus, what thou art. 5. Be thou our joy, and thou our guard, Who art to be our great reward: Our glo-ry and our boast in thee For ev-er and for ev-er be. A-men.

℣. Blessed be the Name of the Lord, alleluia.

℟. From this time forth for evermore, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. For he that is mighty † hath magnified me, and holy is his Name, alleluia.

O may our lives thy-self proclaim: And may we love thee and a-dore
With all our hearts for ev-ermore. A-men.

Office Hymn

J e-su, the beauty Angels see, The ear's ecstat-ic minstrel-sy,
The nectar of the henly home, The lips' de-licious honey-comb:
2. For they who taste thee hunger sore, And they who drink thee thirst the more, De-sir-ing naught be-low, a-bove, Save Je-sus, whom their spir-its love. 3. O Je-su, most de-sired and dear, The hope of longing spir- its here, To thee my earnest tears shall turn, For thee my inmost heart shall yearn. 4. Be with us, Lord; our mental gloom

With all thy ho-ly light il-lume: Disperse th' oppress-ive shades of ill,

Cre- a-tion with thy sweetness fill. 5. Je-su, the Vir-gin Mother's Flow'r,

Thou love a-lone of sweet-est pow'r, All honour to thy Name di-vine,

The realm of endless bliss be thine. A-men.

¶ Our help standeth in the Name of the Lord, alleluia.

¶ Who hath made heaven and earth, alleluia.

Ben. Ant. He gave himself † that he might deliver his people, and get him a perpetual Name, alleluia.

II Evensong

¶ The Office Hymn & Versicle are of I Evensong with the following Antiphon.

Mag. Ant. Thou shalt call † his Name Jesus, for he shall save his people from their sins, alleluia.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER NATIVITY

Mag. Ant. Behold, the Angel of the Lord † appeareth in a dream to Joseph, saying: Arise, and take the young Child and his Mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word; for it shall come to pass, that Herod will seek the young Child, to destroy him.

Ben. Ant. But when Herod was dead, † behold an Angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying: Arise, and take the young Child and his Mother, and go into the land of Israel; for they are dead which sought the young Child's life.

Mag. Ant. When Joseph heard † that Archelaus did reign in Judæa in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; and being warned in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee: and he came and dwelt in a city which was called Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

2 JANUARY. OCTAVE DAY OF ST. STEPHEN

¶ The propers are from the Feast Day, except for that which followeth.

Collect

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who, in the blood of the blessed Levite Stephen, didst consecrate the first-fruits of the Martyrs: grant, we beseech thee; that he may ever intercede for us, who prayed even for his persecutors to our Lord Jesus Christ, thy Son. Who with thee liveth.

3 JANUARY. OCTAVE DAY OF ST. JOHN

¶ The propers are from the Feast Day, except for that which followeth.

Mag. Ant. This is the same John † who learned on the Lord's bosom at the last supper: the blessed Apostle, unto whom were revealed the secret things of heaven.

Collect

MERCIFUL Lord, we beseech thee to cast thy bright beams of light upon thy Church: that it being enlightened by the doctrine of thy blessed Apostle and Evangelist Saint John may so walk in the light of thy truth, that it may at length attain to the light of everlasting life. Through.

Secret

RECEIVE, O Lord, the gifts which we offer unto thee on the solemnity of him, in whose advocacy we trust for deliverance. Through.

Postcommunion

GOD, who hast refreshed us with heavenly meat and drink, we humbly beseech thee: that we may be defended by the prayers of him, in whose memory we have received the same. Through.

¶ If the Postcommunion of this Mass shall have been already said for some other Saint, the Postcommunion for St. John shall be that of his Feast before the Latin Gate, 6 May, as followeth.

WE beseech thee, O Lord: that we, who have been refreshed with heavenly bread, may be nourished unto life eternal. Through.

4 JANUARY. OCTAVE DAY OF HOLY INNOCENTS

¶ The propers are from the Feast Day, except for that which followeth.

NOTE, The Gloria in excelsis is said.

v. Herod was exceeding wroth, and slew many children.

r. In Bethlehem Judah, the city of David.

Mag. Ant. These are they † which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins: and they follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth.

¶ If a Commemoration only is made of the Octave, the Prayers (of the Feast) will be as followeth.

Collect

ALMIGHTY God, who out of the mouths of babes and sucklings hast ordained strength, and madest infants to glorify thee by their deaths: mortify and kill all vices in us; and so strengthen us by thy grace, that by the innocency of our lives, and constancy of our faith even unto death, we may glorify thy holy name. Through.

¶ Commemoration is made of St. Titus (p. 319).

Secret

AY the devout prayers of thy Saints never fail us, O Lord: that they may render our gifts acceptable unto thee, and ever obtain for us thy pardon. Through.

¶ Commemoration is made of St. Titus (p. 319).

Postcommunion

 E beseech thee, O Lord: that the gifts which we have offered and received may, through the prayers of the Saints, effectually avail for our succour both in this life, and in that which is to come. Through.

¶ Commemoration is made of St. Titus (p. 320).

¶ NOTE, In Lent, either the Ferial Day's propers or Ash Wednesday's propers may be said.

¶ The Office Hymn & Versicles of the Feast of the Epiphany of Our Lord shall be used for the foregoing Sundays and Ferial Days until I Evensong of Septuagesima, exclusive.

4 JANUARY. ST. TITUS

¶ The propers are from the First Common of a Confessor Bishop (p. 716), except for the Gospel & Prayers as followeth.

Collect

 GOD, who didst adorn blessed Titus, thy Confessor and Bishop, with apostolic virtues: grant, through his merits and intercession; that, living justly and godly in this world, we may be found worthy to attain unto the heavenly country. Through.

Gospel. Luke 10:1

 T THAT TIME: The Lord appointed seventy also: and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come. Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest. Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves. Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way. And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house. And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again. And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

Secret

 E beseech thee, O Lord, that we remembering with gladness the merits of thy Saints, may in all places feel the succour of their intercession. Through.

Postcommunion

GRANT, we beseech thee, almighty God: that we, shewing forth our thankfulness for the gifts which we have received, may, at the intercession of blessed Titus, thy Confessor and Bishop, obtain yet more abundant mercies. Through.

5 JANUARY. VIGIL OF EPIPHANY

¶ The Daily Office propers are as on the Feast of the Circumcision, except that which followeth.

¶ NOTE, Commemoration is made of St. Telesphorus with the Prayers of the next Mass.

Mag. Ant. The Child Jesus † increased in wisdom and stature in the sight of God and man.

Ben. Ant. While all things † were in quiet silence, and that night was in the midst of her swift course, thine Almighty Word, O Lord, leaped down out of thy royal throne, alleluia.

Introit

WHILE all things were in quiet silence, and night was in the midst of her swift course, thine almighty Word, O Lord, leaped down from heaven out of thy royal throne. Ps. The Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel: the Lord hath put on his apparel, and girded himself with strength.

Collect

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, direct our actions according to thy good pleasure: that in the name of thy well-beloved Son we may be made worthy to abound in good works. Who liveth and reigneth with thee.

¶ Commemoration of St. Telesphorus (p. 322) and for St. Mary after Christmas (p. 772) is said.

Epistle. Galatians 4:1

BRETHREN: The heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all; But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father. Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world: But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

Gradual. Thou art fairer than the children of men: full of grace are thy lips. v. My heart is inditing of a good matter, I speak of the things which I have made unto the King: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. v. The Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel: the Lord hath put on his apparel, and girded himself with strength. Alleluia.

Gospel. Matthew 2:19

AT THAT TIME: When Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life. And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judaea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee: And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

Offertory. God hath made the round world so sure: that it cannot be moved: ever since the world began, hath thy seat, O God, been prepared, thou art from everlasting.

Secret

GRANT, we beseech thee, almighty God: that the gift which we offer in the sight of thy majesty, may obtain for us grace to serve thee with all godliness, and bring us in the end to everlasting felicity. Through.

¶ Commemoration of St. Telesphorus (p. 322) and for St. Mary after Christmas (p. 772) is said.

Communion. Take the young Child and his Mother and go into the land of Israel: for they are ead which sought the young Child's life.

Postcommunion

MAY the operation of this mystery, Lord, avail for the cleansing of our sins, and for the fulfilment of our godly desires. Through.

5 JANUARY. ST. TELESPHORUS

¶ The propers are from the Second Common of a Martyr Bishop (p. 687), with the Prayers below.

Collect

GOD, who makest us glad with the yearly solemnity of blessed Telesphorus, thy Martyr and Bishop: mercifully grant; that, as we now celebrate his birthday so we may likewise rejoice in his protection. (Through.)

Secret

ANCTIFY, O Lord, the gifts which we dedicate to thee: that at the intercession of blessed Telesphorus, thy Martyr and Bishop, they may obtain for us thy gracious favour. (Through.)

Postcommunion

WE beseech thee, O Lord our God, that like as we, whom thou hast refreshed by the partaking of thy sacred gift, do offer unto thee our worship: so by the intercession of blessed Telesphorus thy Martyr and Bishop, we may perceive the benefit of the same. (Through.)

Ben. Ant. To-day † the Church is joined to her heavenly Bridegroom; because in Jordan Christ hath washed away her offences: the wise men with their offerings hasten to the royal marriage, and the guests are regaled with water made wine, alleluia.

II Evensong

¶ The Office Hymn & Versicle are of I Evensong, with the following Antiphon.

Mag. Ant. Now do we celebrate † a holy day adorned by three miracles: to-day a star led the wise men to the manger; to-day water was made wine at the wedding feast; to-day Christ vouchsafed to be baptized of John in Jordan that he might save us, alleluia.

¶ Within the Octave of the Epiphany, no Feast is kept except an occurrent I Double, on which Commemoration of the Octave is always made.

During the Octave all is said as on the Feast, except the Ants. on Benedictus and Magnificat appointed for each day.

The Office of Sunday within the Octave is said as set forth below, on whatever day in the Octave it may fall.

After Sunday, the days in the Octave continue according to their number, as if Sunday had not intervened. For example, if Sunday should fall on the third day in the Octave, on the following day the Ants. on Benedictus and Magnificat of the third day in the Octave are said, and so thenceforth the others.

WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF THE EPIPHANY

Day II, Semidouble

Ben. Ant. From the east † there came wise men to Bethlehem, to worship the Lord: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him precious gifts: gold as to a mighty King, incense as to the true God, and myrrh to foreshew his burial, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. When the wise men saw the star † they rejoiced with exceeding great joy: and when they were come into the house, they presented unto the Lord gold, frankincense, and myrrh, alleluia.

Day III, Semidouble

Ben. Ant. Three are the gifts † which the wise men presented unto the Lord: gold, frankincense, and myrrh, to the Son of God, to the mighty King, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. Light of light, † thou, O Christ, hast appeared, unto whom the wise men present their gifts, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Day IV, Semidouble

Ben. Ant. We have seen his star † in the East, and are come with gifts to worship the Lord.

Mag. Ant. Herod inquired † of the wise men, What sign have ye seen, concerning him that is born King? We have seen a star shining, the brightness whereof enlightens the world.

Day V, Semidouble

Ben. Ant. Many nations † shall come from afar, bearing their gifts, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. All they from Sheba † shall come: they shall bring gold and incense, alleluia, alleluia.

Day VI, Semidouble

Ben. Ant. They that despised thee † shall come unto thee, and shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet.

Mag. Ant. The wise men, being warned † in dreams by an Angel, departed into their own country another way.

Saturday within the Octave

℣. We have seen his star in the east, alleluia.

℟. And are come with gifts to worship the Lord, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. The Child Jesus † tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it, supposing him to have been in the company; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

¶ When the Octave Day of the Epiphany falls on Sunday, the Office of the Sunday in the Octave is said on the preceding Saturday, and I Evensong of Sunday is said on Friday with Commemoration of the preceding day in the Octave.

But if a I Double occur on this Saturday, the Office of Sunday is anticipated on the nearest day on which only the Office of the Octave is to be said, and in the Office of the Feast Commemoration is made of the occurrent day within the Octave. In the Office of Sunday all is said as noted below.

SUNDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF THE EPIPHANY

¶ The Office Hymns are from the Feast of the Epiphany (p. 322), except for the following.

℣. All they from Sheba shall come, alleluia.

℟. They shall bring gold and incense, alleluia.

Ben. Ant. The Child Jesus † tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it, supposing him to have been in the company; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

Proper of Season

Epiphany IV

¶. We have seen his star in the east, alleluia.

¶. And are come with gifts to worship the Lord, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. Son, † why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing. How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?

BAPTISM OF OUR LORD

(Octave Day of the Epiphany)

¶ The Daily Office propers are as in the Feast of the Epiphany (p. 322).

¶ From the Octave of Epiphany until the Saturday before the I Sunday in Lent, when the Office is of the Feria, all is said as in the Daily Hymns except that which is appointed as Proper. The Collect is that of the preceding Sunday.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

¶ The Office Hymns & Versicles are from the Daily Hymns (p. 2), with the following Antiphons.

Mag. Ant. God hath holpen † his servant Israel, as he promised to Abraham and to his seed: and hath exalted the humble for ever and ever.

Ben. Ant. There was a marriage † in Cana of Galilee, and Jesus was there with Mary his Mother.

Mag. Ant. And when they wanted wine, † Jesus bade them to fill the water-pots with water; and it was turned into wine, alleluia.

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

Mag. Ant. God hath holpen † his servant Israel, as he promised to Abraham and to his seed: and hath exalted the humble for ever and ever.

Ben. Ant. When Jesus † was come down from the mountain, behold there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus put forth his hand and touched him, saying: I will; be thou clean.

Mag. Ant. Lord, if thou wilt, † thou canst make me clean: then saith Jesus, I will; be thou clean.

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

Mag. Ant. God hath holpen † his servant Israel, as he promised to Abraham and to his seed: and hath exalted the humble for ever and ever.

Ben. Ant. And when Jesus † was entered into a ship, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea: and his disciples awoke him, saying: Lord, save us, we perish.

Mag. Ant. Save us, Lord, † we perish: rebuke the winds and the sea, O God, and make a great calm.

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

Mag. Ant. God hath holpen † his servant Israel, as he promised to Abraham and to his seed: and hath exalted the humble for ever and ever.

Ben. Ant. Sir, † didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? He said unto them, An enemy hath done this.

Mag. Ant. Gather ye together † first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn, saith the Lord.

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

Mag. Ant. God hath holpen † his servant Israel, as he promised to Abraham and to his seed: and hath exalted the humble for ever and ever.

Ben. Ant. The kingdom of heaven † is like unto a grain of mustard seed, which is the least of all seeds; but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs.

Mag. Ant. The kingdom of heaven † is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened.

SEPTUAGESIMA SUNDAY

Mag. Ant. The Lord said † unto Adam, Of the tree which is in the midst of the garden thou shalt not eat: for in the day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt surely die.

Ben. Ant. The kingdom † of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard, saith the Lord.

Mag. Ant. The householder † saith unto the labourers, Why stand ye here all the day idle? They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, I will give you.

SEPTUAGESIMATIDE FERIAL OFFICE

¶ On Ferias from Septuagesima Sunday until Ash Wednesday, exclusive, when the Office is not of the Feria, it is always commemorated at Mattins and Evensong on Double Feasts, even of the I Class, and on days within Octaves.

¶ The Benedictus Antiphons are said on Ferias as set forth in the Psalter, through Tuesday after Quinquagesima.

¶ NOTE, No notice is taken of an occurrent Vigil, either in the Office of a Feast, or of a day within an Octave, or of a Feria. The Office of St. Mary on Saturday is not said.

ANTIPHONS WITHIN SEPTUAGESIMA WEEK*Septuagesima Monday, Feria*

Mag. Ant. These last † have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.

Proper of Season

Sexagesima Week

Septuagesima Tuesday, Feria

Mag. Ant. The householder answered and said, † Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny? Take that thine is, and go thy way.

Septuagesima Wednesday, Feria

Mag. Ant. Take that thine is † and go thy way: because I am good, saith the Lord.

Septuagesima Thursday, Feria

Mag. Ant. Is it not lawful † for me to do what I will? Is thine eye evil, because I am good? saith the Lord.

Septuagesima Friday, Feria

Mag. Ant. So the last † shall be first, and the first shall be last: for many are called, but few are chosen.

SEXAGESIMA SUNDAY

Mag. Ant. The Lord † said unto Noah: The end of all flesh is come before me: make thee an ark of gopher wood, that therein the seed of all flesh may be saved.

Ben. Ant. When much people † were gathered together to Jesus, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable: A sower went out to sow his seed.

Mag. Ant. Unto you it is given † to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven: but to others in parables, said Jesus to his disciples.

ANTIPHONS WITHIN SEXAGESIMA WEEK

Sexagesima Monday, Feria

Mag. Ant. If ye seek † the summit of true honour, hasten to yon heavenly country with what speed ye may.

Sexagesima Tuesday, Feria

Mag. Ant. The seed † is the word of God, but Christ is the Sower: every one that heareth him shall abide for ever.

Sexagesima Wednesday, Feria

Mag. Ant. But that † which fell on the good ground are they which in an honest and good heart receive the word; and bring forth fruit with patience.

Sexagesima Thursday, Feria

Mag. Ant. Some seed † fell on good ground, and brought forth fruit; some an hundred-fold, and some sixtyfold.

Sexagesima Friday, Feria

Mag. Ant. They who keep the word of God † with an honest and perfect heart bring forth fruit with patience.

QUINQUAGESIMA SUNDAY

Mag. Ant. Mighty Abraham, † the father of our faith, offered a burnt offering upon the altar, instead of his son.

Ben. Ant. Behold, we go up † to Jerusalem, and all things that are written concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished: for he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitted on; and they shall scourge him, and put him to death; and the third day he shall rise again.

Mag. Ant. And Jesus stood, † and commanded him to be brought unto him, and asked him, saying: What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? Lord, that I may receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight, thy faith hath saved thee. And straightway he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God.

ANTIPHONS WITHIN QUINQUAGESIMA WEEK*Quinquagesima Monday, Feria*

Mag. Ant. And they which went before † rebuked him that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Have mercy on me, thou Son of David.

Quinquagesima Tuesday, Feria

Mag. Ant. Have mercy on me, † thou Son of David. What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? Lord, that I may receive my sight.

¶ If on the following Ash Wednesday there occur a I or II Double, it is transferred to the first unhindered day. Greater and lesser Doubles and Memorials are only commemorated on the other days of Lent.

ASH WEDNESDAY

¶ On this day all Octaves cease until Holy Sabbath. On this and other Ferias through None of the following Saturday all is said as in the Psalter throughout the Year except that which is appointed as proper.

¶ The Daily Office propers are of the Ferial Day, except the following Antiphons.

Ben. Ant. When ye fast, † be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance.

Mag. Ant. Lay up for yourselves † treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt.

THURSDAY AFTER ASH WEDNESDAY

¶ The Daily Office propers are of the Ferial Day, except the following Antiphons and Collects.

Mattins

Ben. Ant. Lord, my servant † lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented. Verily I say unto thee, I will come and heal him.

GOD, who art offended by sin, and reconciled by penitence: mercifully regard the prayers of thy suppliant people, and turn away the scourge of thy wrath, which for our sins we have justly deserved. Through.

II Evensong

Mag. Ant. Lord, I am not worthy † that thou shouldest enter under my roof: but speak the word only and my servant shall be healed.

PARE us, O Lord, spare thy people: that they who are justly chastised by thy scourges, may be relieved by thy tender mercy. Through.

Introit

WHEN I called upon the Lord, he heard my voice from the battle that was against me, yea, even God, that endureth for ever, shall bring them down: O cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall nourish thee. Ps. Hear my prayer, O God, and hide not thyself from my petition: take heed unto me and hear me.

Collect

GOD, who art wroth with them that sin against thee, and sparest them that are penitent: mercifully look upon the prayers of thy people which call upon thee; and turn away the scourges of thy wrath which for our sins we justly deserve. Through.

Epistle. Isaiah 38:1

IN THOSE DAYS: Was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live. Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, And said, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore. Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying, Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years. And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city, saith the Lord almighty.

Gradual. O cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall nourish thee. ¶ When I called upon the Lord, he heard my voice from the battle that was against me.

Gospel. Matthew 8:5

AT THAT TIME: When Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him, And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented. And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him. The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed. For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

Offertory. Unto thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul: my God, I have put my trust in thee, O let me not be confounded: neither let mine enemies triumph over me: for all they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed.

Secret

WE beseech thee, O Lord, favourably to regard these our sacrifices: that they may be profitable for our devotion and set forward our salvation. Through.

¶ ^{2nd} Secret is Of Saints (p. 773) & ^{3rd} Of the Living and Departed (p. 775).

Communion. Thou shalt be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt-offerings and oblations upon thine altar, O Lord.

Postcommunion

WE humbly beseech thee, almighty God: that, as we have received the blessing of this heavenly gift; so it may be made to us thy sacrament, and avail to our salvation. Through.

¶ ^{2nd} Postcommunion is Of Saints (p. 773) & ^{3rd} Of the Living and Departed (p. 775).

PRIEST. Let us pray.

DEACON. Humble your heads before God.

¶ The Priest then prays the following:

DISPERE, O Lord, spare thy people: that they who are justly chastised by thy scourges, may by thy mercy be relieved. Through.

FRIDAY AFTER ASH WEDNESDAY

¶ The Daily Office propers are of the Ferial Day, except the following Antiphons and Collects.

Mattins

Ben. Ant. When thou doest thine alms, † let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, to accompany with thy bounteous favour the fast upon which we have entered: that the observance which we shew forth in our bodies, we may be able also to practise with sincerity of heart. Through.

II Evensong

Mag. Ant. But thou, when thou prayest, † enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father.

PESEND thy people, O Lord, and mercifully cleanse them from all their sins: for no adversity will harm them over whom iniquity hath no dominion. Through.

Introit

KHE Lord heard, and had mercy upon me: the Lord became my helper. Ps. I will magnify thee, O Lord, for thou hast set me up: and not made my foes to triumph over me.

Collect

WE beseech thee, O Lord, to further with thy gracious favour the fasts which we have begun: that as we keep this observance in the flesh, so we may have strength to perform the same in singleness of heart. Through.

¶ 2nd Collect is Of Saints (p. 773) & 3rd Of the Living and Departed (p. 775).

Epistle. Isaiah 58:1

KHUS SAITH THE LORD GOD: Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins. Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God. Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your labours. Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high. Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD? Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh? Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the LORD shall be thy reward. Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. For I the LORD thy God am merciful.

Gradual. One thing have I desired of the Lord, which I will require, even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord. ¶ To behold the fair beauty of the Lord, and to hide me in his holy temple.

Tract. O Lord, deal not with us after our sins: nor reward us according to our wickednesses. ¶ O Lord, remember not our old sins: but have mercy upon us, and that soon, for we are come to great misery. (Here genuflect.) ¶ Help us, O God of our salvation: and for the glory of thy name, O Lord, deliver us: and be merciful unto our sins, for thy name's sake.

Gospel. Matthew 5:43

AT THAT TIME: Jesus said unto his disciples: Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so? Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect. Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven. Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

Offertory. Quicken me, O Lord, according to thy word: that I may know thy testimonies.

Secret

GRANT, we beseech thee, O Lord, that this sacrifice of Lenten observance which we offer: may both render our souls acceptable unto thee, and make us more readily to serve thee in continence. Through.

¶ 2nd Secret is Of Saints (p. 773) & 3rd Of the Living and Departed (p. 775).

Saturday

Proper of Season

Ash Wednesday

Communion. Serve the Lord in fear, and rejoice unto him with reverence: lay hold on discipline, lest ye perish from the right way.

Postcommunion

OUR forth upon us, O Lord, the Spirit of thy charity: that as thou hast fulfilled us with one heavenly bread, so of thy goodness thou wouldest make us to be of one heart and mind. Through . . . in the unity of the same.

¶ 2nd Postcommunion is Of Saints (p. 773) & 3rd Of the Living and Departed (p. 775).

PRIEST. Let us pray.

DEACON. Humble your heads before God.

¶ The Priest then prays the following:

DEFEND, O Lord, thy people, and mercifully cleanse them from all their sins: that no adversity may harm them, over whom iniquity hath no dominion. Through.

SATURDAY AFTER ASH WEDNESDAY

¶ In the Daily Office, the propers are of the Ferial Day, except the following Antiphon.

Ben. Ant. Yet they seek me daily, † and delight to know my ways.

Introit

HE Lord heard, and had mercy upon me: the Lord became my helper. Ps. I will magnify thee, O Lord, for thou hast set me up: and not made my foes to triumph over me.

Collect

ASSIST us, O Lord, in these our supplications: and grant; that like as this solemn fast hath been ordained for the safety and healing of our bodies and our souls, so we may with devout observance celebrate the same. Through.

¶ 2nd Collect is Of Saints (p. 773) & 3rd Of the Living and Departed (p. 775).

Epistle. Isaiah 58:9

HUS SAITH THE LORD GOD: If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity; And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noonday: And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not. And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in. If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words: Then shalt thou delight thyself in the LORD; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

Gradual. One thing have I desired of the Lord, which I will require, even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord. ¶ To behold the fair beauty of the Lord, and to visit his temple.

Gospel. Mark 6:47

AT THAT TIME: When even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and Jesus alone on the land. And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them. But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out: For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid. And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered. For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened. And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore. And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him, And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was. And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole.

Offertory. Quicken me, O Lord, according to thy word: that I may know thy testimonies.

Secret

ACCEPT, O Lord, the sacrifice which thou hast ordained to be a worthy propitiation unto thee: and grant, we beseech thee, that we being cleansed by the operation of the same, may offer unto thee the acceptable devotion of our hearts. Through.

¶ 2nd Secret is Of Saints (p. 773) & 3rd Of the Living and Departed (p. 775).

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

I Evensong

O mak-er of the world, give ear; Ac-cept the prayer and own the tear Towards thy seat of mercy sent In this most ho- ly fast of Lent. 2. Each heart is man-i- fest to thee; Thou know-est our in-firmi- ty; Forgive thou then each soul that fain Would seek to thee, and turn a-gain. 3. Our sins are man-i-fold and sore, But par-don them that sin de-plore: And, for thy Name's sake, make each soul

That feels and owns its languor, whole. 4. So mor-ti- fy we every sense

By grace of outward absti- nence, That from each stain and spot of sin The soul may keep her fast with-in. 5. Grant, O thou bless-ed Trini- ty, Grant, O es- sential U-ni- ty, That this our fast of forty days

May work our prof- it and thy praise. A- men.

v. God shall give his Angels charge over thee.

r. To keep thee in all thy ways.

Be every sense in ho- ly guard. 4. In prayer to-geth-er let us fall,
And cry for mer-cy, one and all, And weep be- fore the Judge's feet,
And his a-venging wrath entreat. 5. Thy grace have we of-fended sore,
By sins, O God, which we deplore; But pour up-on us from on high, O pard'ning One, thy clem-en-cy. 6. Remember thou, though frail we be, That yet thine handi-work are we; Nor let the hon-our of thy Name
Be by an-oth-er put to shame. 7. Forgive the sin that we have wrought;

Ben. Ant. Then was Jesus † led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil: and when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

II Evensong

¶ The Office Hymn & Versicle are of I Evensong, with the following Antiphon.

Mag. Ant. Behold, now † is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation: let us therefore in all things approve ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in watchings, in fastings, and by love unfeigned.

LENTEN FERIAL OFFICE

¶ On Lenten Ferias, the Hymns and Versicles are taken from the First Sunday of Lent. The Antiphon and Collect are of the Day.

Proper of Season

EMBER WEDNESDAY IN LENT

Ben. Ant. This crooked † and perverse generation seeketh after a sign: and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas.

Mag. Ant. For as Jonas † was three days and three nights in the whale's belly, so shall the Son of Man be in the heart of the earth.

EMBER FRIDAY IN LENT

Ben. Ant. An Angel of the Lord † went down from heaven, and troubled the water, and one was healed.

Mag. Ant. He that made me whole, † the same commanded me: Take up thy bed, and walk in peace.

EMBER SATURDAY IN LENT

Ben. Ant. And Jesus taketh his disciples, † and goeth up into a mountain, and was transfigured before them.

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

¶ The Daily Office propers are as in the First Sunday of Lent (p. 337), except for the following Antiphons.

Mag. Ant. Tell the vision † which ye have seen to no man, until the Son of Man be risen again from the dead.

Ben. Ant. Jesus went thence, † and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon: and behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried, saying: Have mercy on me, thou Son of David.

Mag. Ant. Jesus said † unto the woman of Canaan, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs. Truth, Lord; yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their master's table. Then Jesus answered, O woman, great is thy faith; be it unto thee even as thou wilt.

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

¶ The Daily Office propers are as in the First Sunday of Lent (p. 337), except for the following Antiphons.

Mag. Ant. But the father † said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet.

Ben. Ant. When a strong man armed † keepeth his palace, all his goods are in peace.

Mag. Ant. A certain woman † of the company lifted up her voice and cried, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked. But Jesus answered, Yea, rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

¶ The Daily Office propers are as in the First Sunday of Lent (p. 337), except for the following Antiphons.

Mag. Ant. Woman, † hath no man condemned thee? No man, Lord. Neither do I condemn thee; go and sin no more.

Ben. Ant. When Jesus † lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip: Whence shall we buy bread that these may eat? And this he said to prove him; for he himself knew what he would do.

Mag. Ant. And Jesus † went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

PASSION SUNDAY

I Evensong

The musical notation consists of ten staves of square neumes on a four-line staff system. The first staff begins with a large capital 'T'. The lyrics are as follows:

he roy- al ban- ners for- ward go; The Cross shines forth in mystic glow; Where he in flesh, our flesh who made, Our sen- tence bore, our ran-som paid. 2. Where deep for us the spear was dyed, Life's tor-rent rush-ing from his side, To wash us in that precious flood Where mingled Wa- ter flowed and Blood. 3. Ful-filled is all that Da- vid told In true prophet- ic song of old: Amidst the na-tions, God, saith he, Hath reigned and tri- umphed from the Tree. 4. O Tree of beau- ty!

Tree of light! O Tree with royal purple dight! Elect on whose triumphal breast Those holy limbs should find their rest: 5. On whose dear arms, so widely flung, The weight of this world's ransom hung,

The price of human kind to pay, And spoil the spoiler of his prey.

¶ During the following stanza, all kneel.

6. O Cross, our one reliance, hail! This holy Passiontide avail

To give fresh merit to the saint And pardon to the penitent.

¶ NOTE, The following stanza is never changed.

7. To thee, eternal Three in One, Let homage meet by all be done: Whom by the Cross thou dost restore, Preserve and govern

T he Lamb's high banquet we await In snow-white robes of ro-y al state: And now, the Red Sea's channel past, To Christ our Prince we sing at last. 2. Upon the Al-tar of the Cross His Bod-y hath redeemed our loss: And tast-ing of his ros-eate Blood Our life is hid with him in God. 3. That Paschal Eve God's arm was bared, The dev- asta- ting Angel spared: By strength of hand our hosts went free From Phar-ah's ruthless tyr-anny. 4. Now Christ, our Paschal Lamb, is slain,
 The Lamb of God that knows no stain, The true Ob-la-tion of- fered here, Our own un-leav-ened Bread sincere. 5. O thou, from whom hell's mon-arch flies, O great, O ver-y Sac-ri- fice, Thy cap-tive people are set free, And endless life re-stored in thee. 6. For Christ, a- ris-ing from the dead, From conquered hell vic-tori-ous sped, And thrust the ty-rant down to chains, And Par-a- dise for man re-gains. 7. We pray

ANTIPHONS WITHIN EASTER WEEK

Easter Monday

Ben. Ant. Jesus himself † drew near to his disciples in the way, and went with them: but their eyes were holden that they should not know him: and he rebuked them, saying, O fools and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. What manner of communications † are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad? alleluia, alleluia.

Easter Tuesday

Ben. Ant. Jesus stood † in the midst of his disciples and said unto them, Peace be unto you, alleluia, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. Behold my hands † and my feet, that it is I myself, alleluia.

Easter Wednesday

Ben. Ant. Cast the net † on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. Jesus saith unto his disciples, † Bring of the fish which ye have now caught. Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, alleluia.

Easter Thursday

Ben. Ant. Mary stood † at the sepulchre weeping, and seeth two Angels in white, sitting, and the napkin that was about the head of Jesus, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. They have taken † away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. If thou have borne him hence, tell me, alleluia: and I will take him away, alleluia.

Easter Friday

Ben. Ant. The eleven disciples, † when they saw the Lord in Galilee, worshipped him, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. All power † is given unto me in heaven and in earth, alleluia.

Easter Saturday

Ben. Ant. They ran both together, † and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. The same day † at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you, alleluia.

 LORD, from whom all good things do come, grant to us thy humble servants: that by thy holy inspiration we may think those things that be good; and by thy merciful guiding may perform the same. Through.

 RANT, we beseech thee, almighty God: that we, who in our affliction do put our trust in thy mercy; may ever be defended by thy protection against all adversities. (Through.)

 RANT, we beseech thee, O Lord God, that we thy servants may enjoy perpetual health of mind and of body: and, at the glorious intercession of blessed Mary ever Virgin, be delivered from present sadness, and rejoice in everlasting gladness. Through.

Epistle. Ephesians 4:7

 RETHREN: Unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.) And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ Christ is risen, and hath shewed light unto us, whom he hath redeemed with his blood. Alleluia. ¶ I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again I leave the world, and go to the Father. Alleluia.

Gospel. John 17:1

 T THAT TIME: Jesus lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said: Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee: As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him. And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was. I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word. Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee. For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me. I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine. And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them. And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee.

Offertory. O praise the Lord our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard: who holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not out feet to slip: praised be the Lord, who hath not cast out my prayer, nor turned his mercy from me, alleluia.

Secret

RECEIVE, O Lord, the prayers of thy faithful people, together with the offering of these sacrifices: that through these observances of our bounden devotion, we may attain unto heavenly glory. Through.
WE beseech thee, O Lord, that these our oblations may both loose the bonds of our iniquity, and obtain for us the gifts of thy loving-kindness. (Through.)
THROUGH thy mercy, O Lord, and the intercession of blessed Mary ever Virgin, may this oblation avail for our prosperity and peace both now and ever. Through.

Communion. O sing unto the Lord, alleluia: sing unto the Lord, and praise his name: be telling of his salvation from day to day, alleluia, alleluia.

Postcommunion

GRANT unto us, O Lord, that we who have been fulfilled with the strength of thy heavenly table: may both desire those things which be right and obtain those things which we desire. Through.
WE beseech thee, O Lord, to further with thy gracious favour these our supplications: that we, receiving thy gifts in our tribulation, may increase in thy love by the consolation of the same. (Through.)
GRANT, we beseech thee, O Lord: that we who have received these aids to our salvation may at all times and in all places be protected by the advocacy of blessed Mary ever Virgin; in whose honour we have made these offerings to thy majesty. Through.

VIGIL OF WHITSUNDAY

¶ From this day through Trinity Sunday, if a I Double or II Double occur, it is transferred to a day after Trinity Sunday. Other Feasts and Memorials are commemorated, except during the Triduum of Whitsunday. No notice is taken of other Octaves during this time.

¶ At Mattins and the Hours, all is said as on the preceding Sunday, without Commemoration of the Ascension.

¶ Mattins (or None) having been said in Choir, the Priest and Ministers, clad in vestments of violet colour, go up to the Altar and make a reverence, and the Priest kisses it in the middle. Then the Prophecies are read without title, the candles of the Altar remaining unlighted until the beginning of the Mass, as on Holy Saturday. The Priest reads them in a low voice at the Epistle corner of the Altar. At the end of the Prophecies the Collects are said without Let us bow the knee.

Prophecy I. Genesis 22:1

N THOSE DAYS: God did tempt Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham: and he said, Behold, here I am. And he said, Take now thy son, thine only son Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of Moriah; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of. And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him. Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off. And

Abraham said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you. And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife; and they went both of them together. And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a burnt offering? And Abraham said, My son, God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together. And they came to the place which God had told him of; and Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood. And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son. And the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham: and he said, Here am I. And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me. And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son. And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovahjireh: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the LORD it shall be seen. And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time, And said, By myself have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies; And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice. So Abraham returned unto his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beersheba; and Abraham dwelt at Beersheba.

¶ After this and the other Prophecies the Response Thanks be to God is not made: then the Priest says:

Let us pray.

 GOD, who in the deed of Abraham thy servant hast given a pattern of obedience to mankind: grant us so to conquer the perversity of our desires, that we may in all things fulfil the righteousness of thy commandments. Through.

Prophecy II. Exodus 14:24

 IN THOSE DAYS: It came to pass, that in the morning watch the LORD looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians, And took off their chariot wheels, that they drove them heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the LORD fighteth for them against the Egyptians. And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen. And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea. And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them; there remained not so much as one of them. But the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left. Thus the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore. And Israel saw that great work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the LORD, and believed the LORD, and his servant Moses. Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the LORD, and spake, saying:

Tract. I will sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea. The LORD is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation. ¶ He is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my father's God, and I will exalt him. ¶ The LORD is a man of war: the LORD is his name.

Let us pray.

 GOD, who by the light of thy new Covenant hast made manifest thy wonders wrought in former times, shewing in the Red Sea a pattern of the sacred font, and in the deliverance of thy people from bondage in Egypt foreshadowing the sacraments of thy Christian people: grant that all nations, being admitted by the merit of their faith to the privilege of Israel, may be regenerated by the partaking of thy Holy Spirit. Through . . . in the unity of the same Holy Ghost.

Prophecy III. Deuteronomy 31:22

 IN THOSE DAYS: Moses wrote this song, and taught it the children of Israel. And he gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land which I swear unto them: and I will be with thee. And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished, That Moses commanded the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying, Take this book of the law, and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee. For I know thy rebellion, and thy stiff neck: behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, ye have been rebellious against the LORD; and how much more after my death? Gather unto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and call heaven and earth to record against them. For I know that after my death ye will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the latter days; because ye will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands. And Moses spake in the ears of all the congregation of Israel the words of this song, until they were ended.

Prophecy IV. Isaiah 4:1

 IN THAT DAY seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only let us be called by thy name, to take away our reproach. In that day shall the branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel. And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem: When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning. And the LORD will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be a defence. And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.

Let us pray.

 LMIGHTY and everlasting God, who through thy only Son hast revealed thyself to be the husbandman of thy Church, who dost mercifully purge every branch that bringeth forth fruit in the true vine, even the same thy Christ, to the intent that it may bring forth more fruit: let not the thorns of sin prevail against thy faithful people whom by the Font of baptism thou hast brought like a vine out of Egypt; that being fortified by the sanctifying power of thy Spirit, they may be enriched with everlasting fruit. Prophecy V. Baruch 3:9

HEAR, O Israel, the commandments of life: give ear to understand wisdom. How happeneth it, O Israel, that thou art in thine enemies' land, that thou art waxen old in a strange country, that thou art defiled with the dead, that thou art counted with them that go down into the grave? Thou hast forsaken the fountain of wisdom. For if thou hadst walked in the way of God, thou shouldest have dwelled in peace for ever. Learn where is wisdom, where is strength, where is understanding; that thou mayest know also where is length of days, and life, where is the light of the eyes, and peace. Who hath found out her place? and who hath come into her treasures? Where are the princes of the heathen, and such as ruled the beasts that are upon the earth; they that had their pastime with the fowls of the air, and they that hoarded up silver and gold, wherein men trust; and of whose getting there is no end? For they that wrought in silver, and were so careful, and whose works are past finding out, they are vanished and gone down to the grave, and others are come up in their steads. Younger men have seen the light, and dwelt upon the earth: but the way of knowledge have they not known, neither understood they the paths thereof: neither have their children laid hold of it: they are far off from their way. It hath not been heard of in Canaan, neither hath it been seen in Teman. The sons also of Agar that seek understanding, which are in the land, the merchants of Merran and Teman, and the authors of fables, and the searchers out of understanding; none of these have known the way of wisdom, or remembered her paths. O Israel, how great is the house of God! and how large is the place of his possession! great, and hath none end; high, and unmeasurable. There were the giants born that were famous of old, great of stature, and expert in war. These did not God choose, neither gave he the way of knowledge unto them: so they perished, because they had no wisdom, they perished through their own foolishness. Who hath gone up into heaven, and taken her, and brought her down from the clouds? Who hath gone over the sea, and found her, and will bring her for choice gold? There is none that knoweth her way, nor any that comprehendeth her path. But he that knoweth all things knoweth her, he found her out with his understanding: he that prepared the earth for evermore hath filled it with fourfooted beasts: he that sendeth forth the light, and it goeth; he called it, and it obeyed him with fear: and the stars shined in their watches, and were glad: when he called them, they said, Here we be; they shined with gladness unto him that made them. This is our God, and there shall none other be accounted of in comparison of him. He hath found out all the way of knowledge, and hath given it unto Jacob his servant, and to Israel that is beloved of him. Afterward did she appear upon earth, and was conversant with men.

Let us pray.

Prophecy VI. Ezekiel 37:

LIN THOSE DAYS: The hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones, And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry. And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest. Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live: And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone. And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them. Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army. Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts. Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel. And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land.

Let us pray.

GLORY God of hosts, who restorest those things that are broken down, and preservest those things that thou restorest: increase the peoples that shall be regenerated in the sanctification of thy name; that all who are washed in holy baptism may ever be guided by thy inspiration. Through.

GThese ended, the Celebrant receives a violet Cope, and, while he descends to the Font, the following is sung:

Tract. Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks: so longeth my soul after thee, O God. V. My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God: when shall I come to appear before the presence of God? V. My tears have been my meat day and night, while they daily say unto me: Where is now thy God?

GThen the Priest, before he enters for the blessing of the Font, says near the Font:

R. Et cum spíritu tuo.
V. Orémus.

¶ Then he proceeds to the blessing of the Font, as on Holy Saturday.

¶ But when there are no Fonts, the sixth Prophecy with its Collect being finished, the Celebrant lays aside the Chasuble, and prostrates himself before the Altar with the Ministers; and all kneeling, the Litany is sung by two Cantors in the middle of the choir, both choirs responding together. When they come to ¶. We sinners beseech thee, the Priest and Ministers rise and go to the Sacristy, where they put on red vestments, while the lights around the Altar are lighted.

¶ At the end of the Litany Kyrie, élison is sung solemnly for the Mass, and repeated as usual. Meanwhile the Priest with the Ministers proceeds to the Altar, and makes the Confession, Prayer of Humble Access, and Ten Commandments (and/or Summary of the Law); then ascending, he kisses it, and censes it as usual. Kyrie, élison being ended, he begins solemnly Glory be to God on high, and the bells are rung.

¶ Afterwards the Priest says:

Epistle. Acts 19:1

IN THOSE DAYS: It came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples, He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost. And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism. Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied. And all the men were about twelve. And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God.

t this our sol- emn feast Let ho-ly joys abound, And from the inmost breast Let songs of praise re-sound; Let ancient rites depart, And all be new a-round In every deed, in voice, in heart.

2. Re- member we that night When, the last Supper spread, Christ, as we all be-lieve, Our Lamb and leav'nless bread Amongst his brethren shared And thus the law obeyed, Of old un- to their sires de-clared.

3. The ty-pick lamb con- sumed, The Paschal feast complete, The Lord un-to the Twelve His Bod-y gave to eat; The whole to all, no less

The whole to each, did mete With his own hands, as we con-fess.

S ee how the bold and rag-ing crowds Of all our sins surge on with might To wound God's pure and guilt-less Heart, So un-deserv-ing of our spite. 2. The spear the sol-dier cast was hurled By our dire crime and mor-tal sin: It was through us the tempered iron Was made so sharp to pierce with-in. 3. From out this Heart, so rudely torn, The Church was born as Je-su's bride: To save the na- tions

 a ceaseless stream of grace Came pour-ing as a sev'nfold flood,
 Where-in we wash our soil-ed robes And purge them in the Lamb's own

SUNDAYS AFTER TRINITY*Second Sunday after Trinity*

Mag. Ant. And all Israel knew † from Dan even to Beersheba, that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the Lord.

Ben. Ant. A certain man † made a great supper, and bade many; and sent his servants at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. Go out quickly † into the streets and lanes of the city, and compel them to come in; the poor and the maimed, the halt and the blind, that my house may be filled, alleluia.

Third Sunday after Trinity

Mag. Ant. So David prevailed † over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, in the Name of the Lord.

Ben. Ant. What man of you, † having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? Alleluia.

Mag. Ant. What woman, † having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently until she find it?

Fourth Sunday after Trinity

Mag. Ant. Ye mountains † of Gilboa, let there be neither dew nor rain upon you; for there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oil. How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! Jonathan was slain upon thy high places! Saul and Jonathan were lovely and exceeding pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided.

Ben. Ant. Be ye therefore † merciful, as your Father also is merciful, saith the Lord.

Mag. Ant. Judge not, † that ye be not judged: for with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged, saith the Lord.

Fifth Sunday after Trinity

Mag. Ant. O Lord, I beseech thee, † do away the iniquity of thy servant, for I have done very foolishly.

Ben. Ant. And Jesus entered † into a ship, and sat down, and taught the people, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. Master, † we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless, at thy word I will let down the net.

Trinitytide

Sixth Sunday after Trinity

Mag. Ant. Zadok the priest † and Nathan the prophet anointed Solomon king in Gihon: and the people came up rejoicing and said, Let the king live for ever.

Ben. Ant. Ye have heard that it was said † by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill, and whosoever shall kill, shall be in danger of the judgment.

Mag. Ant. If thou bring † thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee; leave there thy gift before the altar and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift, alleluia.

Seventh Sunday after Trinity

Mag. Ant. Thou hast heard, O Lord, † the supplication of thy servant, that I might build a temple to thy Name.

Ben. Ant. The multitude being very great, † and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them, I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. I have compassion † on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat: and if I send them away fasting, they will faint by the way, alleluia.

Eighth Sunday after Trinity

Mag. Ant. When the Lord took up Elijah † by a whirlwind into heaven, Elisha cried, saying: My father, the chariot of Israel and the horses thereof.

Ben. Ant. Beware † of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

Ye shall know them by their fruits, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. A good tree † cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit: every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire, alleluia.

Ninth Sunday after Trinity

Mag. Ant. Jehoash † did that which was right in the sight of the Lord all his days, wherein Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

Ben. Ant. The lord said † unto the steward, How is it that I hear this of thee? Give an account of thy stewardship, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. What shall I do? † for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed: I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

Tenth Sunday after Trinity

Mag. Ant. I beseech thee, O Lord, † remember now how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight.

Ben. Ant. When the Lord was come near to Jerusalem, † he beheld the city, and wept over it, saying: If thou hadst known, even thou! For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, and shall lay thee even with the ground; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. Is it not written, † Mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people? but ye have made it a den of robbers. And he was daily with them, teaching int he temple.

Eleventh Sunday after Trinity

Ben. Ant. And the publican, † standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

Mag. Ant. This man went down † to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

Twelfth Sunday after Trinity

Ben. Ant. When the Lord had passed † through the coasts of Tyre, he made the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak.

Mag. Ant. He hath done all things well: † he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

Thirteenth Sunday after Trinity

Ben. Ant. Master, † what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. A certain man † went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity

Ben. Ant. As Jesus passed through † a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off:

and they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

Mag. Ant. And one of them, † when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, alleluia.

Fifteenth Sunday after Trinity

Ben. Ant. Be not therefore anxious, † saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. Seek ye first † the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you, alleluia.

Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity

Ben. Ant. Jesus went into a city † called Nain; and behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother.

Mag. Ant. A great prophet † is risen up among us: and God hath visited his people.

Seventeenth Sunday after Trinity

Ben. Ant. And Jesus went † into the house of one of the the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, behold there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy; and he took him, and healed him, and let him go.

Mag. Ant. When thou art bidden to † a wedding, sit down in the lowest place; that he that bade thee may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher; then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee, alleluia.

Proper of Season

Trinitytide

Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity

Ben. Ant. Master, † which is the great commandment in the law? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. What think ye of Christ? † whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David. Jesus saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand?

Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity

Ben. Ant. The Lord said † unto the sick of the palsy, Son, be of good cheer, thy sins be forgiven thee.

Mag. Ant. The sick of the palsy † therefore took up his bed whereon he lay, glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, give praise unto God.

Twentieth Sunday after Trinity

Ben. Ant. Tell them which are bidden, † Behold, I have prepared my dinner; come unto the marriage, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. And when the king came in † to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment: and he said unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment?

Twenty-First Sunday after Trinity

Ben. Ant. There was a certain nobleman, † whose son was sick at Caper-naum: when he heard that Jesus was come out of Judæa into Galilee, he besought him that he would heal his son.

Mag. Ant. So the father knew † that it was at the same hour in the which Jesus said, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

Twenty-Second Sunday after Trinity

Ben. Ant. Then said the lord † unto the servant, Pay me that thou owest. The servant therefore fell down and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

Mag. Ant. Thou wicked servant, † I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me: shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee, alleluia.

Twenty-Third Sunday after Trinity

Ben. Ant. Master, † we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. Render therefore † unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's: and unto God the things that are God's, alleluia.

Twenty-Fourth Sunday after Trinity

Ben. Ant. For she said within herself, † If I may but touch the hem of his garment, I shall be whole.

Mag. Ant. But Jesus turned him about, † and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole, alleluia.

Sunday Next before Advent

Ben. Ant. When Jesus then † lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat? And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.

Mag. Ant. Then those men, † when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said among themselves, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world.

VIGIL OF ST. ANDREW

Vigil
29 November

¶ If to-day be Saturday, the anticipated Vigil of St. Andrew is kept, but the commemoration of St. Saturninus is omitted, in which case the 2nd is of St. Mary (p. 772) and the 3rd against the persecutors of the Church (p. 774) or for the Chief Bishop (p. 774).

Introit

 HE Lord, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Peter and Andrew, and he called them, saying: Follow me: I will make you fishers of men. Ps. The heavens declare the glory of God: and the firmament sheweth his handy-work.

Collect

 E beseech thee, almighty God: that the blessed Apostle Andrew, whose festival we prevent, may implore thy help for us; that we, being absolved from our offences, may likewise be delivered from all dangers. Through.

¶ In Advent, 2nd Collect of the Feria, 3rd of St. Saturninus (p. 406).

¶ Outside of Advent, 2nd Collect of St. Saturninus (p. 406), 3rd of St. Mary in Eastertide (p. 773).

Epistle. Ecclesiasticus 44:22

 N Isaac did the Lord establish, for Abraham his father's sake, The blessing of all men, and the covenant: And he made it rest upon the head of Jacob; He acknowledged him in his blessings, And gave to him by inheritance, And divided his portions; Among twelve tribes did he part them. And he brought out of him a man of mercy, Which found favour in the sight of all flesh; A man beloved of God and men, even Moses, Whose memorial is blessed. He made him like to the glory of the saints, And magnified him in the fears of his enemies. By his words he caused the wonders to cease; He glorified him in the sight of kings; He gave him commandment for his people, And shewed him part of his glory. He sanctified him in his faithfulness and meekness; He chose him out of all flesh. He made him to hear his voice, And led him into the thick darkness, And gave him commandments face to face, Even the law of life and knowledge, That he might teach Jacob the covenant, And Israel his judgments. He exalted Aaron, a holy man like unto him, Even his brother, of the tribe of Levi. He established for him an everlasting covenant, And gave him the priesthood of the people; He beautified him with comely ornaments, And girded him about with a robe of glory.

Gradual. Right honourable are thy friends, O God: right well is their princedom established. ¶ If I tell them: they are more in number than the sand.

Gospel. John 1:35

AT THAT TIME: John stood, and two of his disciples; And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God! And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou? He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour. One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ. And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone. The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me. Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see. Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile! Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee. Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel. Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these. And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

Offertory. Thou hast crowned him with glory and worship: thou hast made him to have dominion of the works of thy hands, O Lord.

Epistle. Hebrews 13:7

REthren: Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation. Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein. We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle. For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp. Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach. For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account.

Gradual. I have found David my servant, with my holy oil have I anointed him: my hand shall hold him fast, and my arm shall strengthen him. V. The enemy shall not be able to do him violence, the son of wickedness shall not hurt him.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. V. The righteous shall flourish like a palm-tree: and shall spread abroad like a cedar in Libanus. Alleluia.

Gospel. Matthew 25:14

AT THAT TIME: Jesus spake this parable to his disciples: A man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods. And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey. Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents. And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two. But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money. After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them. And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more. His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them. His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

 T THAT TIME: Jesus spake this parable unto his disciples: The kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls: Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord. Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

ST. MAURUS

I Evensong

Defender, leader true, thine own companions deem'd
Thy splendour half divine, since all were less esteem'd:
For thy most worthy deeds, Maurus, accept the lays Wherewith we celebrate thy praise.

Born of a noble stock, great honour was his due,
But palaces he spurn'd, and from the world withdrew;
Delights he tramp'l'd down, estates and robes unpric'd,
To undergo the yoke of Christ.

The holy Abbot's grace, before his eyes display'd,
By deeds of equal worth he eagerly portray'd;
The pattern of the life monastic shone in truth
From every action of the youth.

Sternly, with sackcloth rough, self-mastery he wrought,
And by the curb of law, unbroken silence sought;

Mattins Invitatory

In childhood Placidus was by his father giv'n;
Thus offer'd, he himself did freely yield to God.
Since first he came, he ever shone with wondrous grace,
A pattern to all zealous souls.

His Abbot sent him forth to fill an earthen crock,
He dips it in the lake, unwary, slips and falls,
A wave then carries him a bow-shot from the shore,
Out in the deep drowning is nigh.

But Maurus, what is this, that hast'ning to the lake,
Thou runnest o'er the waves as though thou wast on land?
Wont to obey, 'tis thus thy holy father's voice
Doth lead thee to a miracle.

Straightway the lake restores Placidus safe again,
But whose the merit? Did his Nursian father draw

The ever-watchful nights in fervent prayer he spent;
Whole days of fasting underwent

Right speedily he flew to do the father's hest,
Dry-shod, the waters deep with fearless feet he press'd;
And safely he return'd with Placidus, set free
Like Peter walking on the sea.

To thee, O Trinity, high praise and honour be,
Whose countenance desir'd the heaven-dwellers see:
Grant that the Holy Rule may be our pathway plain
The prize of Maurus to attain. Amen.

℣. The Lord loved him and adorned him.

℟. He clothed him with a robe of glory.

Mag. Ant. O most blessed of men! † who, rejecting this world, bore the yoke of Holy Rule from tender years so lovingly; and being made obedient even unto death, he denied himself, that he might wholly cling to Christ his Master, alleluia.

Him from the swirling depths, or was it
Maurus' act?
The child resolves their questioning.

O Holy Trinity, through prayers of Pla-cidus,
Grant to thy monks that by the narrow path of Rule
They may at length attain unto the courts of heav'n,
And mingle with celestial choirs.
Amen.

Epistle. Ecclesiasticus 51:13

 HEN I was yet young, Or ever I went abroad, I sought wisdom openly in my prayer. Before the temple I asked for her, And I will seek her out even to the end. From her flower as from the ripening grape my heart delighted in her: My foot trod in uprightness, From my youth I tracked her out. I bowed down mine ear a little, and received her, And found for myself much instruction. I profited in her: Unto him that giveth me wisdom I will give glory. For I purposed to practice her, And I was zealous for that which is good; And I shall never be put to shame. My soul hath wrestled in her, And in my doing I was exact: I spread forth my hands to the heaven above, And bewailed my ignorances of her. I set my soul aright unto her, And in pureness I found her. I gat me a heart joined with her from the beginning: Therefore shall I not be forsaken. My inward part also was troubled to seek her: Therefore have I gotten a good possession. The Lord gave me a tongue for my reward; And I will praise him therewith.

Draw near unto me, ye unlearned, And lodge in the house of instruction. Say, wherefore are ye lacking in these things, And your souls are very thirsty? I opened my mouth, and spake, Get her for yourselves without money. Put your neck under the yoke, And let your soul receive instruction: She is hard at hand to find. Behold with your eyes, How that I laboured but a little, And found for myself much rest. Get you instruction with a great sum of silver, And gain much gold by her. May your soul rejoice in his mercy, And may ye not be put to shame in praising him. Work your work before the time cometh, And in his time he will give you your reward.

Gradual. I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west. V. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. v. An obedient man shall speak of victory; Wealth and riches shall be in his house. Alleluia.

¶ In Septuagesimataide & Lent, the Alleluia is omitted and the Tract is said instead.

Tract. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord: he hath great delight in his commandments. v. His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the faithful shall be blessed. v. Riches and plenteousness shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

Gospel. Matthew 14:28

AT THAT TIME: Peter answered Jesus and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water. And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus. But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me. And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased. Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

¶ Commemoration is made of St. Prisca of Rome (p. 427).

Epistle. 1 Peter 1:1

 ETTER Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Gradual. Let them exalt him in the congregation of the people: and praise him in the seat of the elders. v. O that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. v. Thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church. Alleluia.

¶ In Septuagesimadate & Lent, the Alleluia is replaced with the following.

Tract. Thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church. v. And the gates of hell shall not prevail against it: and I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven. v. Whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven. v. And whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

¶ In Eastertide, the Alleluia is replaced with the following.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. v. O that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men. Alleluia. v. Thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church. Alleluia.

Gospel. Matthew 16:13

AT THAT TIME: When Jesus came into the coasts of Cæsarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am? And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets. He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Offertory. Thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church: and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it: and I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven.

 WILL give thanks unto thee, O Lord, O King, And will praise thee, O God my Saviour: I do give thanks unto thy name: For thou wast my protector and helper, And didst deliver my body out of destruction, And out of the snare of a slanderous tongue, From lips that forge lies, And wast my helper before them that stood by; And didst deliver me, according to the abundance of thy mercy, and greatness of thy name, From the gnashings of teeth ready to devour, Out of the hand of such as sought my life, Out of the manifold afflictions which I had; From the choking of a fire on every side, And out of the midst of fire which I kindled not; Out of the depth of the belly of the grave, And from an unclean tongue, And from lying words, The slander of an unrighteous tongue unto the king. My soul drew near even unto death, And my life was near to the grave beneath. They compassed me on every side, And there was none to help me. I was looking for the succour of men, And it was not. And I remembered thy mercy, O Lord, And thy working which hath been from everlasting. How thou deliverest them that wait for thee, And savest them out of the hand of the enemies, O Lord our God.

Gospel. Matthew 25:1

 THAT TIME: Jesus spake this parable unto his disciples: The kingdom of heaven shall be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them: But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out. But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not. Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

Epistle. 1 John 3:10

 EARLY BELOVED: Whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother. For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous. Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you. We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death. Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

Gradual. Thou hast crowned him with glory and worship. v. Thou hast made him to have dominion of the works of thy hands, O Lord.

Gospel. Matthew 10:26

AT THAT TIME: Jesus said to his disciples: There is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops. And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows. Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls: Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord. Epistle. 1 Corinthians 1:26

 RETHREN: Ye see your calling: how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: That no flesh should glory in his presence. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

Gradual. God shall help her with his countenance: God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be removed. v. The rivers of the flood thereof shall make glad the city of God: the holy place of the tabernacle of the Most Highest.

Gospel. Matthew 19:3

 T THAT TIME: The Pharisees came unto Jesus, tempting him, and saying unto him: Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorce, and to put her away? He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery. His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry. But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given. For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

AT THAT TIME: Jesus said unto his disciples: When they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come. The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord. It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household? Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops. And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

Epistle. Daniel 9:21

IN THOSE DAYS: Behold the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation. And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding. At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision. Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy. Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times. And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

Gradual. O praise the Lord, ye Angels of his, ye that excel in strength, ye that fulfil his commandment. ¶ Praise the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me praise his holy name.

Tract. Hail, Mary, full of grace; the Lord is with thee. ¶ Blessed art thou among women: and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. ¶ Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bring forth a Son, and shalt call his name Emmanuel. ¶ The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee. ¶ Therefore also that Holy Thing which shall be born of thee, shall be called the Son of God.

¶ In Votive Masses before Septuagesima or after Pentecost, the Gradual as above, but in place of the Tract is said:

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ O praise the Lord, all ye his hosts: ye servants of his that do his pleasure. Alleluia.

¶ In Votive Masses in Eastertide, replacing the Gradual & Tract:

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ Who maketh his Angels spirits: and his ministers a flaming fire. Alleluia. ¶ Hail, Mary, full of grace; the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. Alleluia.

Gospel. Luke 1:26

AT THAT TIME: The Angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee named Nazareth, to a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren. For with God nothing shall be impossible. And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word.

Offertory. An Angel stood at the altar of the temple, having a golden censer in his hand; and there was given unto him much incense: and the smoke of the incense ascended up before God.

Epistle. Wisdom 10:10

 ISDOM guided him in straight paths; She shewed him God's kingdom, and gave him knowledge of holy things; She prospered him in his toils, and multiplied the fruits of his labour; When in their covetousness men dealt hardly with him, She stood by him and made him rich; She guarded him from enemies, And from those that lay in wait she kept him safe, And over his sore conflict she watched as judge, That he might know that godliness is more powerful than all. When a righteous man was sold, wisdom forsook him not, But from sin she delivered him; She went down with him into a dungeon, And in bonds she left him not, Till she brought him the sceptre of a kingdom, And authority over those that dealt tyrannously with him; She shewed them also to be false that had mockingly accused him, And gave him eternal glory. Wisdom delivered a holy people and a blameless seed from a nation of oppressors. She entered into the soul of a servant of the Lord, And withstood terrible kings in wonders and signs. She rendered unto holy men a reward of their toils.

Gradual. It is God that girdeth me with strength of war: and maketh my way perfect, ¶. He teacheth mine hands to fight: and mine arms shall break even a bow of steel.

Tract. I will follow upon mine enemies, and overtake them. ¶. I will smite them that they shall not be able to stand: but fall under my feet. ¶. For this cause will

I give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the Gentiles, and sing praises unto thy name.

Gospel. Luke 6:6

AT THAT TIME: It came to pass on another sabbath, that Jesus entered into the synagogue and taught. And there was a man whose right hand was withered. And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him. But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth. Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it? And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other. And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it? Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace. So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

Epistle. 1 Corinthians 1:18

BRETHREN: The preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom: But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: That no flesh should glory in his presence. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption.

Gradual. The wisdom of this world is foolishness with God, for it is written: The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain. ¶ I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

Tract. I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified. ¶ We speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory. ¶ Which none of the princes of this world knew. For had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ The wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written: The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain. Alleluia. ¶ Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord. Alleluia.

¶ In Votive Masses before Septuagesima or after Pentecost, the Gradual is said, as above, but, the Tract being omitted, there is added

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord. Alleluia.

Gospel. Luke 12:2

AT THAT TIME: Jesus said to his disciples: There is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known. Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops. And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God? But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows. Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God.

Epistle. 2 Corinthians 4:5

RETHREN: We preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed; Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. So then death worketh in us, but life in you. We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak; Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

IN THOSE DAYS: God shewed the things which must shortly come to pass, and he sent and signified it by his Angel unto his servant John, Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw. Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand. John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne; And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Gospel. Matthew 18:1

AT THAT TIME: The disciples came unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven? And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them, And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me. But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea. Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh! Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire. And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire. Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

 RETHREN: They were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death: But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ The Lord sware, and will not repent: Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedech. Alleluia. ¶ The Lord loved him, and adorned him: he clothed him with a robe of glory. Alleluia.

Gospel. Luke 10:1

 T THAT TIME: The Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come. Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest. Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves. Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way. And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house. And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again. And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

 LET us now praise famous men, And our fathers that begat us. The Lord manifested in them great glory, Even his mighty power from the beginning. Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, And were men renowned for their power, Giving counsel by their understanding, Such as have brought tidings in prophecies: Leaders of the people by their counsels, And by their understanding men of learning for the people; Wise were their words in their instruction: Such as sought out musical tunes, And set forth verses in writing: Rich men furnished with ability, Living peaceably in their habitations: All these were honoured in their generations, And were a glory in their days. There be of them, that have left a name behind them, To declare their praises. And some there be, which have no memorial; Who are perished as though they had not been, And are become as though they had not been born; And their children after them. But these were men of mercy, Whose righteous deeds have not been forgotten. With their seed shall remain continually a good inheritance; Their children are within the covenants. Their seed standeth fast, And their children for their sakes. Their seed shall remain for ever, And their glory shall not be blotted out. Their bodies were buried in peace, And their name liveth to all generations. Peoples will declare their wisdom, And the congregation telleth out their praise.

Gradual. Rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings, that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. V. If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye: for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. V. I will extend peace to her like a river, and glory like a flowing stream. Alleluia.

¶ In Eastertide, the following Alleluia Verse replaces the Gradual & Lesser Alleluia.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love the Lord. Alleluia. V. When ye see this, your heart shall rejoice: and the hand of the Lord shall be known toward his servants. Alleluia.

Gospel. Matthew 5:1

AT THAT TIME: Jesus, seeing the multitudes, went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him: And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying, Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven.

Epistle. Wisdom 10:10

 ISDOM guided the righteous man in straight paths; She shewed him God's kingdom, and gave him knowledge of holy things; She prospered him in his toils, and multiplied the fruits of his labour; When in their covetousness men dealt hardly with him, She stood by him and made him rich; She guarded him from enemies, And from those that lay in wait she kept him safe, And over his sore conflict she watched as judge, That he might know that godliness is more powerful than all. When a righteous man was sold, wisdom forsook him not, But from sin she delivered him; She went down with him into a dungeon, And in bonds she left him not, Till she brought him the sceptre of a kingdom, And authority over those that dealt tyrannously with him; She shewed them also to be false that had mockingly accused him, And gave him eternal glory.

Gradual. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord: he hath great delight in his commandments. ¶ His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the faithful shall be blessed.

Epistle. 2 Corinthians 8:9

 RETHREN: Ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich. And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago. Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have. For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened: But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality: As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

Gradual. Behold a great priest who in his days pleased God. v. There was none found like unto him, who kept the law of the Most High.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. v. Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchise-dech. Alleluia.

Epistle. Jeremiah 1:4

JIN THOSE DAYS: The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations. Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child. But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak. Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD. Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth. See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant: saith the Lord almighty.

Gradual. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. ¶ The same came to bear witness of the light, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

Gospel. Luke 1:5

THERE was in the days of Herod, the king of Judaea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years. And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord. And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense. And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense. And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him. But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb. And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God. And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

IN THOSE DAYS: Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple; Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms. And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us. And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them. Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. And all the people saw him walking and praising God: And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who by thy blessed Confessors and Bishops, Cyril and Methodius, didst suffer the peoples of Slavonia to come to the knowledge of thy name: vouchsafe; that we, who glory in their festival may be joined unto their fellowship. Through.

Gospel. Luke 10:1

AT THAT TIME: the Lord appointed other seventy also: and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come. Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest. Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves. Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way. And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house. And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again. And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

Offertory. God is wonderful in his holy ones: even the God of Israel, he will give strength and power unto his people: blessed be God.

Secret

WE beseech thee, O Lord, to have respect unto the prayers and oblations of thy faithful people: that they may be acceptable unto thee on this festival of thy Saints, and effectually bestow on us the assistance of thy mercy. Through.

Communion. What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light, saith the Lord: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the house-tops.

Postcommunion

WE beseech thee, almighty God: that as thou dost vouchsafe to bestow upon us heavenly gifts, so, at the intercession of thy Saints Cyril and Methodius, thou wouldest grant unto us to despise things earthly. Through.

¶ The Epistle is from the Common of Neither Virgin Nor Martyr (p. 755).

Gradual. Our soul is escaped, even as a bird out of the snare of the fowler. v. The snare is broken, and we are delivered : our help is in the name of the Lord, who hath made heaven and earth.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. v. This is the true brotherhood, which overcame the wickedness of the world: which followed Christ, gaining heaven's glorious realms. Alleluia.

Gospel. Matthew 12:46

AT THAT TIME: While Jesus spake to the multitudes, behold his Mother and brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him. Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee. But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

Offertory. Our soul is escaped, even as a bird out of the snare of the fowler: the snare is broken, and we are delivered.

Epistle. 1 Timothy 6:6

 EARLY BELOVED: Godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life.

Gospel. Matthew 19:27

AT THAT TIME: Peter said unto Jesus: Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore? And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

I Evensong

The lofty peaks of Carmel
With tuneful praises ring,
The anthems of Elias
'Tis our delight to sing.

The glory of our Churches,

Mattins Invitatory Hymn

Creator of the universe, our grateful hearts rejoice,
Exalting thee in this, the mighty Thes-bite of thy choice;

Whose zeal for thy great glory, en-

Our leader, prop, and stay,
From east to west his offspring
Increaseth day by day.

When sorely press'd with famine,
A raven serv'd him bread,
With meal and cruse unfailing,
The widow'd hearth was fed.

The boy from death delivered
Is to his home restor'd,
And light so much desir'd,
In radiant flood is pour'd.

Behold the Heaven closeth,
To open at his voice,
And copious welcome showers
The thirsty lands rejoice.

To Father, Son, and Spirit,
Be equal power and praise,
All glory and dominion
Henceforth for endless days. Amen.

¶. By the word of the Lord he shut up the heaven.

¶. And he brought down fire from heaven thrice.

Mag. Ant. Behold, I † will send you Elias the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord: And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers

Mattins Office Hymn

Come, blest companions, let our joy resounding Extol to heav'n the leader of our line.
'Tis meet the mem'ry of his deeds abounding
Should waken ceaseless canticles divine.

He knows the gentle breathing of the Spirit

kindled as a flame,
Defied the impious Prophets, and slew them in thy name.

His holocaust ascendeth, for thy fire may never fail,
While scorn and deep derision mock the clamorous priests of Baal.

The baneful rage of Jezabel he fliehth in his dread,
And sleeping 'neath a juniper is by an angel fed.

Empowered by the vision, with new courage he hath trod
Unto the heights of Horeb, unto the Mount of God.

O virtue of this bread divine, imparted by the Lord!
Full forty days he fasteth in the strength it doth afford.

All glory be to thee, O Father, Son, and Paraclete,
O undivided Trinity, thy praise all hearts repeat. Amen.

II Evensong

Thou prop of our Churches, thou pride of our race, Let thy praises resound far and near,
Let sea and the land and the air give them place,
Rehearsing in gladness thy glory and grace,
Till the earth and the heav'ns give ear.

Cloth'd in the whistling murmur of the air,
By God's command the chastisements they merit
Proud Jezebel and Ahab justly share.

The caverns green of Carmel form his dwelling,
With leathern tunic is he rudely clad,
To impious Ahaziah his foretelling Gives portent of a dissolution sad.

Twice at his pray'r the fire from Heav'n descending Consumeth trembling soldiers in its flame,
The flowing wat'rs met with his mantle rending,
Dry shod he passeth safely through the same.

O Father, let thy help and thy protection
Be o'er thy children as they humbly plead,
Entreat the Spirit, by his sweet election,
To multiply his graces in their need.

O unbegotten Father, we adore thee,
O Son begotten, rev'rence be to thee,
O glorious Spirit, bow we low before thee,
Thou simple undivided Trinity. Amen.

℣. Elias was covered with the whirlwind.

℟. And his spirit was filled up in Eliseus.

Ben. Ant. Elias was a man † subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months. And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

O sun of the heavens, how lovely thy rays!

What power thy wonders unfold,
How fruitful in merits the length of thy days,
Commission'd by God in His manifold ways,
For noble endeavours of old!

To regions celestial, in power and might,
Triumphant thy chariot speeds;
Uplifted by angels to marvellous height,
While shining in splendour and dazzling with light,
Thou guidest the fiery steeds.

As witness to men of his Sonship divine,
With Jesus thy glory we view;
The Father hath call'd thee on Tabor to shine,
Companion to Moses, and with him to sign
A testament faithful and true.

Protect us we pray, 'neath thy powerful shield,
Incline to our aid from above,
Let thy fost'ring guidance be ever reveal'd
To thy children of Carmel, whose bosoms are seal'd
With the strength of thy fath'rly love

All power, dominion, all glory and praise,
Be given to Father and Son,
To thee, Holy Spirit, for numberless days
Our homage eternal we equally raise
All glory to God, Three in One. Amen.

℣. Blessed are they that saw thee.

R. And were honoured with thy friendship.

Mag. Ant. And Elias took † his mantle, and wrapped it together, and smote the waters of the Jordan, and they were divided hither and thither, so that he and Eliseus went over on dry ground. As they still went on, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elias went up by a whirlwind into heaven, and Eliseus saw him no more.

Collect

¶ Commemoration of St. Margaret of Antioch, from the Second Common of a Virgin Martyr (p. 740).

Epistle. Ecclesiasticus 48:1

 HERE arose Elijah the prophet as fire, And his word burned like a torch: Who brought a famine upon them, And by his zeal made them few in number. By the word of the Lord he shut up the heaven: Thrice did he thus bring down fire. How wast thou glorified, O Elijah, in thy wondrous deeds! And who shall glory like unto thee? Who did raise up a dead man from death, And from the place of the dead, by the word of the Most High: Who brought down kings to destruction, And honourable men from their bed: Who heard rebuke in Sinai, And judgements of vengeance in Horeb: Who anointed kings for retribution, And prophets to succeed after him: Who was taken up in a tempest of fire, In a chariot of fiery horses: Who was recorded for reproofs in their seasons, To pacify anger, before it brake forth into wrath; To turn the heart of the father unto the son, And to restore the tribes of Jacob.

Gradual. It came to pass, when the Lord would take up Elias into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elias went with Eliseus from Gilgal. ¶ And it came to pass, as they still went on, that, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elias went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ Elias, while he was full of zeal for the law, was taken up into heaven. Alleluia.

Gospel. Luke 9:28

AT THAT TIME: It came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, Jesus took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray. And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistening. And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias: Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem. But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said. While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

Offertory. Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are: and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it rained not on the earth for the space of three years and six months: and he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

Preface

AND that we, with glad hearts, should praise, bless, and glorify thee in the Solemnity of blessed Elias thy Prophet: Who at thy word stood up like fire; shut the heavens and raised the dead; smote tyrants and slew the blasphemous; and laid the foundation of the monastic profession: Who, being fed with meat and drink served by Angels, walked in the strength of that food, even to the holy mountain: Who, being raised up from earth in a fiery chariot, will return to us as the Forerunner of the second Coming of Jesus Christ our Lord. Gospel. Matthew 13:44

AT THAT TIME: Jesus spake this parable unto his disciples: The kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls: Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord. Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

Offertory. Full of grace are thy lips, because God hath blessed thee for ever and ever.

Communion. The kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls: who when he had found one pearl of great price, gave all that he had, and bought it.

Epistle. 1 Peter 5:1

 EARLY BELOVED: The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world. But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Gradual. I have found David my servant, with my holy oil have I anointed him: my hand shall hold him fast, and my arm shall strengthen him. ¶ The enemy shall not be able to do him violence, the son of wickedness shall not hurt him.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. v. The Lord sware, and will not repent: Thou art a priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedech. Alleluia.

Gospel. Luke 22:24

AT THAT TIME: There was a strife among the disciples, which of them should be accounted the greatest. And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors. But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth. Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations. And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me; That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Offertory. My truth and my mercy shall be with him: and in my name shall his horn be exalted.

Gospel. Matthew 5:1

 T THAT TIME: Jesus, seeing the multitudes, went up into a mountain, and when he was set, his disciples came unto him: And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying, Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven:

Offertory. God is wonderful in his holy ones: even the God of Israel, he will give strength and power unto his people: blessed be God.

Epistle. Acts 6:8

IN THOSE DAYS: Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people. Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen. And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake. When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth. But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, and said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, and cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul. And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep in the Lord.

Epistle. Wisdom 4:7

BUT a righteous man, though he die before his time, shall be at rest. (For honourable old age is not that which standeth in length of time, Nor is its measure given by number of years: But understanding is gray hairs unto men, And an unspotted life is ripe old age.) Being found well-pleasing unto God he was beloved of him, And while living among sinners he was translated: He was caught away, lest wickedness should change his understanding, Or guile deceive his soul. (For the bewitching of naughtiness bedimmeth the things which are good, And the giddy whirl of desire perverteth an innocent mind.) Being made perfect in a little while, he fulfilled long years; For his soul was pleasing unto the Lord: Therefore hastened he out of the midst of wickedness. But as for the peoples, seeing and understanding not, Neither laying this to heart, That grace and mercy are with his chosen, And that he visiteth his holy ones.

Gospel. Matthew 16:24

AT THAT TIME: Jesus said unto his disciples: If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

RETHREN: We thank God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judæa are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews: who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men: forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

 WILL give thanks unto thee, O Lord, O King, And will praise thee, O God my Saviour: I do give thanks unto thy name: For thou wast my protector and helper, And didst deliver my body out of destruction, And out of the snare of a slanderous tongue, From lips that forge lies, And wast my helper before them that stood by; And didst deliver me, according to the abundance of thy mercy, and greatness of thy name, From the gnashings of teeth ready to devour, Out of the hand of such as sought my life, Out of the manifold afflictions which I had; From the choking of a fire on every side, And out of the midst of fire which I kindled not; Out of the depth of the belly of the grave, And from an unclean tongue, And from lying words, The slander of an unrighteous tongue unto the king. My soul drew near even unto death, And my life was near to the grave beneath. They compassed me on every side, And there was none to help me. I was looking for the succour of men, And it was not. And I remembered thy mercy, O Lord, And thy working which hath been from everlasting, How thou deliverest them that wait for thee, And savest them out of the hand of the enemies, O Lord our God.

¶ 3rd Collect of the Holy Ghost (p. 774).

Epistle. Ecclesiasticus 24:9

HE created me from the beginning before the world; And to the end I shall not fail. In the holy tabernacle I ministered before him; And so was I established in Sion. In the beloved city likewise he gave me rest; And in Jerusalem was my authority. And I took root in a people that was glorified, Even in the portion of the Lord's own inheritance.

Gradual. Blessed and venerable art thou, O Virgin Mary: who without spot wast found the Mother of the Saviour. ¶ Virgin, Mother of God, he whom the whole world containeth not, being made man lay hid in thy womb.

Gospel. Luke 11:27

AT THAT TIME: As Jesus spake to the multitudes, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked. But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

Offertory. Happy art thou, O holy Virgin Mary, and most worthy of all praise, for from thee sprang the Sun of Righteousness, Christ our God. ¶ Blessed art thou, Virgin Mary, who didst bear the Lord, didst give birth to the Creator of the world, Who made thee, and ever remainest Virgin.

Secret

QLORD, who didst translate the Mother of God from this present life, to the intent that she might faithfully intercede before thee for our sins: grant that her prayers may render these our oblations acceptable in the sight of thy mercy. Through the same.

¶ Commemoration of St. Eusebius (p. 592).

¶ 3rd Secret of the Holy Ghost (p. 774).

Communion. Gentle Mother of God, succour all that pray; we, too, with them, humbly entreat that by the aid of thy prayers we may sing praises unto the Trinity.

Postcommunion

WE beseech thee, O merciful God, to strengthen our frailty, that we who keep the requiem of the Holy Virgin Mother of God, may by her intercession rise again from our iniquities. Through.

¶ The Epistle is additional Epistle from the Second Common of a Confessor not a Bishop (p. 732).

Gradual. The just shall flourish like a palm-tree: and shall spread abroad like a cedar in Libanus in the house of the Lord. v. To tell of thy loving-kindness early in the morning, and of thy truth in the night-season.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. v. The just shall grow as the lily: and flourish for ever before the Lord. Alleluia.

Gospel. Matthew 11:25

 T THAT TIME: Jesus answered and said: I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight. All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Offertory. The just shall rejoice in strength, O Lord: exceeding glad shall he be of thy salvation: thou hast given him his heart's desire.

Secret

GRANT, we beseech thee, O Lord, that we who, trusting in this our sacrifice of praise, do offer it before thee to the honour of thy Saints: may by the same be delivered from all evils both in this life and in that which is to come. Through.

Communion. The just shall rejoice in the Lord, and put his trust in him: and all they that are true of heart shall be glad.

Postcommunion

[15 AUGUST. ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY]

¶ The Daily Office propers are of the Common of the Blessed Virgin Mary (p. 764), except for the following.

℣. The holy Mother of God is exalted.

Mag. Ant. O most prudent Virgin, † whither goest thou, shining resplendent like the glowing dawn? Daughter of Sion, thou art all comely and beautiful, fair as the moon, clear as the sun.

℣. The holy Mother of God is exalted.

Ben. Ant. Who is she † that riseth up as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?

¶ II Evensong is as in I Evensong, except the following Antiphon.

Mag. Ant. On this day † the Virgin Mary went up into heaven: rejoice, because she reigneth with Christ for ever and ever.

Introit

HOU hast proved and visited mine heart, O Lord, in the night-season: thou hast tried me with fire, and hast found no wickedness in me. Ps. Hear the right, O Lord: consider my complaint.

Collect

TIR up, O Lord, in thy Church that Spirit whom the blessed Levite Lawrence served: that we, being filled with the same, may study to love that which he loved, and to perform in deed that which he taught. Through . . . in the unity of the same Holy Spirit.

Epistle. 2 Corinthians 9:6

BRETHREN: He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work: (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever. Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;)

Gradual. Thou hast crowned him with glory and worship, O Lord. v. And hast made him to have dominion of the works of thy hands.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. v. The Levite Lawrence wrought a good work: who by the sign of the cross gave light to the blind. Alleluia.

Gospel. John 12:24

A T THAT TIME: Jesus said unto his disciples: Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

Offertory. The just shall rejoice in thy strength, O Lord: exceeding glad shall he be of thy salvation: thou hast given him his heart's desire.

Secret

 LORD, we beseech thee, let the holy prayer of blessed Lawrence commend the sacrifices unto thee: that it may be rendered acceptable by the merits of him in whose honour it is solemnly offered forth. Through.

Communion. He that will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

¶ NOTE, When celebrated within the Octave of the Assumption, this Memorial is merely commemorated at Mass.

Introit

 UT God forbid that I should glory, save in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ: by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.
Ps. Thy rod and thy staff comfort me.

Collect

 LORD Jesu Christ, who didst reveal unto blessed Helen the place where thy Cross lay hid, that through her thou mightest enrich thy Church with this precious treasure: grant unto us at her intercession; that by the ransom of the life-giving tree we may attain unto the rewards of everlasting life. Who livest.

Epistle. Proverbs 31:10

 HO can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands. She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar. She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens. She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard. She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms. She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night. She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff. She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy. She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet. She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple. Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land. She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant. Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come. She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her. Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all. Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Gradual. Like as the rich also among the people shall make their supplication before thee. Kings' daughters were among thy honourable women. ¶ She shall be brought unto the King in raiment of needle-work: the virgins that be her fellows shall bear her company, and shall be brought unto thee. With joy and gladness shall they be brought: and shall enter into the King's palace.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ He hath dispersed abroad, and given to the poor: and his righteousness remaineth for ever. Alleluia.

Gospel. Matthew 13:44

T THAT TIME: Jesus spake this parable to his disciples: The kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls: Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord. Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

Offertory. For I determined not to know any thing, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

Secret

 HROUGH these sacred mysteries vouchsafe unto us, O Lord: that as in thy mercy thou didst grant unto blessed Helen ever to carry thy Son crucified in her heart; so we may likewise continually hear him in our hearts. Who liveth and reigneth with thee.

Communion. I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof.

Postcommunion

 RANT unto us, O merciful God: that we who have been refreshed by the benefits of thy life-giving Cross on earth; may through the intercession of blessed Helen attain unto the eternal fruition of the same in heaven. Who livest.

Gospel. Luke 1:26

AT THAT TIME: The angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren. For with God nothing shall be impossible. Mag. Ant. O Cross † exceeding blessed, which alone wast counted worthy to bear the Lord, the King of heaven, alleluia.

[EMBER WEDNESDAY IN AUTUMN]

Ben. Ant. This kind † of evil spirit can come forth by nothing but by prayer and fasting.

[EMBER FRIDAY IN AUTUMN]

Ben. Ant. A woman † in the city, which was a sinner, stood at the Lord's feet behind him, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

[EMBER SATURDAY IN AUTUMN]

Ben. Ant. Give light, O Lord, † to them that sit in darkness: and gudie our feet into the way of peace, thou God of Israel.

[15 SEPTEMBER. SEVEN SORROWS OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY]I Evensong

N ow let the darkling eve Mount suddenly on high, The sun affrighted reave His splendours from the sky, While I in si- lence grieve O'er the mocked ag-o- ny And the di-vine ca- tastrophe.
2. Grief-drenched, thou dost appear With heart of ad-a-mant, O Mother; and dost hear The Great Hi- er- opphant, Upon his wooden bier Locked in the arms of Death, Utter in groans his part-ing breath.

3. What lookest thou up-on, Mangled and bruised and torn? Ah,'tis the ver-y Son Thy yearning breast hath borne! Surely, each break-ing moan

And each deep-mouthed wound Its fellow in thy heart hath found!

4. Surely, the taunts and woes, The scourge, the dripping thorn, The spitting and the blows, The gall, the lance, the scorn; Surely, each torment throws A poi-son-dart at thee, Crushed by their var-ied tyr-anny.

5. Yet thou with pa-tient mien Beneath his Cross dost stand, Nobler in this, I ween, Than all the mar-tyr-band: A thou-sand deaths, O Queen, Upon thy spir-it lie, Yet thou, O mar-vel! dost not die. 6. O Ho-ly

Trin-i ty, Let earth and heav-en raise Their song of laud to thee

The while my spir- it prays: When e- vil comes to me, The strength do thou impart That erst upheld the Vir-gin's heart! A- men.

℣. Pray for us, O Queen of Martyrs.

℟. Who didst stand by the Cross of Jesus.

Mag. Ant. Look not † upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me: my mother's children were angry with me.

Mattins

Invitatory Hymn

hat a flood of tears and sor-row, What an ag-o ny of pain,

O-ver-whelmed the mourning Mother, When her Son, so lately slain,

From the blood-stained Cross was low-ered To her lov- ing arms again. 2. With her tears she bathed his bod-y, Bruised and strick-en yet most sweet; Under-neath his heart the spear-wound; Pierced hands and crimsoned feet: Then, in deep ma-ter-nal anguish, Kissed each wound-

print, as was meet. 3. By these tears of thine, O Moth-er, By the death of thy dear Son, By his cru- el wounds empurpled, By the pain sur-passed by none, Move our spir- its to compassion Till our grief with thine is one. 4. To the Fa-ther, Son, and Spir- it, To the Trin-i- ty most high, Co- e- ter-nal and co- equal, Ev-er-last-ing glo- ry be; Praise un- ending, hon-our, bless-ing, Now and through e- ter-ni- ty. A- men.

Office Hymn

O God, in whom all grace doth dwell, Grant us the grace to pon-der well The Vir-gin Moth-er's sor-rows sev'n, The cru- el wounds to Je- sus giv'n. 2. O may the tears which Mar-y poured Gain for us par-don of the Lord; The ho-ly tears which in their worth

Excel all pen-anc-es of earth. 3. And may the con-templa-tion sore

Of those five wounds which Je-sus bore With all the Vir-gin's sorrows be Our joy throughout e- ter-ni- ty. 4. Glo-ry to thee, O Lord, we give, Who died to make thy ser-vants live; Whom with the Fa-ther we a-dore And Ho-ly Spir-it ev-ermore. A-men.

℣. O Virgin Mary, by thy sorrow's might.

℟. Make us rejoice in heaven's kingdom bright.

Ben. Ant. Come ye, † and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow.

II Evensong

T THAT TIME: Jesus saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me. And he left all, rose up, and followed him. And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them. But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners? And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

Epistle. Acts 17:22

 IN THOSE DAYS: Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said: Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, To THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you. God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us: For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring. Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device. And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter. So Paul departed from among them. Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Gradual. Our soul is escaped even as a bird out of the snare of the fowler. v. The snare is broken, and we are delivered: our help is in the name of the Lord, who hath made heaven and earth.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. v. Let the righteous be glad and rejoice before God: let them also be merry and joyful. Alleluia.

Gospel. Luke 12:1

 AT THAT TIME: Jesus said unto his disciples: Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known. Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops. And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God? But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows. Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God.

Offertory. Let the Saints be joyful with glory, let them rejoice in their beds: let the praises of God be in their mouth, alleluia.

[II OCTOBER. MOTHERHOOD OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY]

I Evensong

¶ The Office Hymn is from the Common of the Blessed Virgin Mary (p. 764), with the following Versicle & Antiphon.

℣. Blessed art thou amongst women.

Mag. Ant. Let us celebrate with joy † the Motherhood of the blessed Mary ever Virgin.

MattinsInvitatory Hymn

In heav-en's court the choice was weighed, And fixed up-on the Bless-ed Maid, Whence there was born, by God's decree, Christ's ran-soming hu-man-i-ty. 2. And so this Vir-gin-Moth-er bore Him who to save us suf-fered sore, Whose life-blood there the earth bedewed Where he re-deemed us on the Rood. 3. Let anxious fears from man de-part, And hope give joy to every heart, For with her Son she e'er will plead That he our tears and prayers may heed. 4. He wel-com-eth his Mo-ther's plea, And list-en-eth right gra-ciously; Let his, like him,

[15 OCTOBER. OUR LADY OF WALSINGHAM]

I Evensong

Hail Mary, ever blessed,
Of Walsingham the Queen!
Through vision of Richeldis,
Thy favours there were seen.
When England was thy dowry,
There pilgrims bowed the knee.
At morn and noon and even,
They knelt to honour thee.

Hail Mary, ever blessed.
Thy children still delight
To tell abroad thy praises,
Thy miracles, thy might.
Still pilgrim feet are treading
Along the holy way.
Hostess of England's Nazareth,
Receive us home today!

Hail Mary, ever blessed.
The wells of water pure
Which mark thy holy places
Are signs that God doth cure
For sick of soul and body.
E'er since Richeldis' day,
They spring in benediction
Beside the Pilgrims' Way.

Hail Mary, ever blessed.
Thy name is great indeed;

Mattins

¶ NOTE, The Invitatory Hymn is the Salve Regina (p. 87).

When Christ was born in Bethlehem,
The Angels worshipped and adored;
And kings and shepherds bowed the knee
To him their Saviour and their Lord.

For thirty years in Nazareth,
His Mother worshipped at the shrine
Of him who came in human form
To save the world, your Lord and mine.

For thirty years in Nazareth
He lived a hidden life of prayer;
And then went forth to work and die,
And every human sorrow share.

A thousand years have passed away;
Another Nazareth must rise
In England's fair and lovely land,
Beneath those distant northern skies.

So Mary, God's own Mother blest, Seeks out Richeldis, lady fair;
And bids her build at Walsingham
A second Nazareth of prayer.

Richeldis hastens to obey;

For Jesus Christ our Saviour
Was in thy womb conceived.
Thy name be ever praised,
Increasing in this place,
And loud the angel's greeting:
'Hail Mary, full of grace!'

All glory, laud, and honour be
O Jesu, Virgin-born
Our worship is alone to thee
With Father and the Ghost.
Thou art our Mediator true,
Appealing for our sin;
Send unto us thine own Spirit,
Who makes us thy true kin. Amen.

v. O Mary, Queen of Heaven and of England, praise ye the Lord.

r. And bring us unto the majesty of thy Son.

Mag. Ant. O all ye Saints, † come unto the Holy Place of Walsingham, and bless ye the Lord.

And soon the builder's work is done:
The Shrine of England's Nazareth
Proclaims the Mother and the Son.

But times did come when wicked hands
Were laid upon that holy place;
And men who knew not Mary's love
Did Walsingham's fair Shrine deface.

Four hundred years again have passed;
Once more the Mother of our Lord
Is shrined and honoured where her Son
Upon his Altar is adored.

So when you come to Walsingham,
Remember this, and mark it well:
It is to Nazareth you come,
Where Jesus, Mary, Joseph dwell.

All glory, laud, and honour be
To Jesu, Virgin-born, to thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

v. Blessed is the holy Virgin Mary, and most worthy of all praise.

r. Through her hath arisen the Sun of Justice, Christ our God, by whom we are saved and redeemed.

Ben. Ant. Wicked men in their lust defied the Church, † and razed the Shrine of Our Lady.

¶ In II Evensong, the Office Hymn & Versicle are of I Evensong, with the following Anti-phon.

Mag. Ant. O God, raise thou up again devotion to thy daughter: † Our blessed

Epistle. 1 Corinthians 4:9

 RETHREN: We are made a spectacle unto the world, and to Angels, and to men. We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised. Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace; And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it: Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day. I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.

Gradual. Avenge thou, O Lord, the blood of thy Saints that is shed. ¶. The dead bodies of thy servants, O Lord, have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the air: and the flesh of thy Saints unto the beasts of the land.

Gospel. John 15:1

AT THAT TIME: Jesus said unto his disciples: I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

 N THOSE DAYS: Lo, I, John, saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth. And he came, and he taketh it out of the right hand of him that sat on the throne. And when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having each one a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. And they sing a new song, saying, Worthy art thou to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and didst purchase unto God with thy blood men of every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation, and madest them to be unto our God a kingdom and priests; and they reign upon the earth. And I saw, and I heard a voice of many angels round about the throne and the living creatures and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; saying with a great voice, Worthy is the Lamb that hath been slain to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and might, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all. And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh. Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. Epistle. Ecclesiasticus 44:16

 NOCH pleased the Lord, and was translated, Being an example of repentance to all generations. Noah was found perfect and righteous; In the season of wrath he was taken in exchange for the world; Therefore was there left a remnant unto the earth, When the flood came. Everlasting covenants were made with him, That all flesh should no more be blotted out by a flood. Abraham was a great father of a multitude of nations; And there was none found like him in glory; Who kept the law of the Most High, And was taken into covenant with him: In his flesh he established the covenant; And when he was proved, he was found faithful. Therefore he assured him by an oath, That the nations should be blessed in his seed; That he would multiply him as the dust of the earth, And exalt his seed as the stars, And cause them to inherit from sea to sea, And from the River unto the utmost part of the earth. In Isaac also did he establish likewise, for Abraham his father's sake, The blessing of all men, and the covenant: And he made it rest upon the head of Jacob; He acknowledged him in his blessings, And gave to him by inheritance, And divided his portions; Among twelve tribes did he part them. And he brought out of him a man of mercy, Which found favour in the sight of all flesh.

Gradual. Behold a great priest, who in his days pleased God. V. There was none found like unto him, who kept the law of the Most High.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. V. The blessed man Saint Martin, Bishop of the city of Tours, entered into rest: whom Angels and Archangels, Thrones, Dominations, and Virtues received. Alleluia.

Gospel. Luke 11:33

 T THAT TIME: Jesus said unto his disciples: No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light. The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness. Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness. If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

N Isaac did the Lord establish, for Abraham his father's sake, The blessing of all men, and the covenant: And he made it rest upon the head of Jacob; He acknowledged him in his blessings, And gave to him by inheritance, And divided his portions; Among twelve tribes did he part them. And he brought out of him a man of mercy, Which found favour in the sight of all flesh; A man beloved of God and men, even Moses, Whose memorial is blessed. He made him like to the glory of the saints, And magnified him in the fears of his enemies. By his words he caused the wonders to cease; He glorified him in the sight of kings; He gave him commandment for his people, And shewed him part of his glory. He sanctified him in his faithfulness and meekness; He chose him out of all flesh. He made him to hear his voice, And led him into the thick darkness, And gave him commandments face to face, Even the law of life and knowledge, That he might teach Jacob the covenant, And Israel his judgments. He exalted Aaron, a holy man like unto him, Even his brother, of the tribe of Levi. He established for him an everlasting covenant, And gave him the priesthood of the people; He beautified him with comely ornaments, And girded him about with a robe of glory.

Epistle. James 1:12

AND EARLY BELOVED: Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man: but every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Do not err, my beloved brethren. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it? lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.  ISDOM guided the righteous man in straight paths; She shewed him God's kingdom, and gave him knowledge of holy things; She prospered him in his toils, and multiplied the fruits of his labour; When in their covetousness men dealt hardly with him, She stood by him and made him rich; She guarded him from enemies, And from those that lay in wait she kept him safe, And over his sore conflict she watched as judge, That he might know that godliness is more powerful than all. When a righteous man was sold, wisdom forsook him not, But from sin she delivered him; She went down with him into a dungeon, And in bonds she left him not, Till she brought him the sceptre of a kingdom, And authority over those that dealt tyrannously with him; She shewed them also to be false that had mockingly accused him, And gave him eternal glory.

1. Epistle. James 1:2

PEARLY BELOVED: Count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord. A double minded man is unstable in all his ways. Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted: but the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away. For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

2. Epistle. 1 Peter 4:13

PEARLY BELOVED: Rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified. But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters. Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf.

Common of Saints

Martyrs I

For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God? And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

Another Gospel. John 12:24

AT THAT TIME: Jesus said unto his disciples: Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

 HE souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, And no torment shall touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died; And their departure was accounted to be their hurt, And their journeying away from us to be their ruin: But they are in peace. For even if in the sight of men they be punished, Their hope is full of immortality; And having borne a little chastening, they shall receive great good; Because God made trial of them, and found them worthy of himself. As gold in the furnace he proved them, And as a whole burnt offering he accepted them. And in the time of their visitation they shall shine forth, And as sparks among stubble they shall run to and fro. They shall judge nations, and have dominion over peoples; And the Lord shall reign over them for evermore.

Gradual. God is glorious in his holy ones: fearful in praises, doing wonders. v. Thy right hand, O Lord, is become glorious in power: thy right hand hath dashed in pieces the enemy.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. v. The bodies of the Saints are buried in peace, but their name liveth for evermore. Alleluia.

¶ In Septuagesimade or Lent, replacing the Alleluia:

Tract. They that sow in tears, shall reap in joy. v. He that now goeth on his way weeping, and beareth forth good seed. v. Shall doubtless come again with joy, and bring his sheaves with him.

Gospel. Luke 21:9

 T THAT TIME: Jesus said unto his disciples: When ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by. Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven. But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake. And it shall turn to you for a testimony. Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer: for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist. And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. But there shall not an hair of your head perish. In your patience possess ye your souls.

¶ After Septuagesima, Alleluia at the end of the following Offertory is omitted.

Offertory. God is wonderful in his holy ones: even the God of Israel, he will give strength and power unto his people: blessed be God, alleluia.

Introit

 ET the people tell of the wisdom of the Saints, and let the church shew forth their praise: their names shall live for evermore. Ps. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: for it becometh well the just to be thankful.

Epistle. Wisdom 5:15

BUT the righteous live for ever, And in the Lord is their reward, And the care for them with the Most High. Therefore shall they receive the crown of royal dignity And the diadem of beauty from the Lord's hand; Because with his right hand shall he cover them, And with his arm shall he shield them. He shall take his jealousy as complete armour, And shall make the whole creation his weapons for vengeance on his enemies: He shall put on righteousness as a breast-plate, And shall array himself with judgement unfeigned as with a helmet; He shall take holiness as an invincible shield.

Gradual. Our soul is escaped even as a bird out of the snare of the fowler. ¶. The snare is broken, and we are delivered: our help standeth in the name of the Lord, who hath made heaven and earth.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. ¶. Let the righteous be glad and rejoice before God: let them also be merry and joyful. Alleluia.

Tract. They that sow in tears, shall reap in joy. ¶. He that now goeth on his way weeping, and beareth forth good seed. ¶. Shall doubtless come again with joy, and bring his sheaves with him.

Gospel. Luke 6:17

AT THAT TIME: Jesus came down from the mountain, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judæa and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases; and they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed. And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh. Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven.

Epistle. Hebrews 10:32

ETHREN: Call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions; partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used. For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance. Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward. For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry. Now the just shall live by faith.

Gradual. The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth them: and delivereth them out of all their troubles. ¶. The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a contrite heart: and will save such as be of an humble spirit.

Gospel. Luke 12:1

T THAT TIME: Jesus said unto his disciples: Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known. Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops. And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God? But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows. Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God.

1. Epistle. Wisdom 10:17

WISDOM rendered unto holy men a reward of their toils; She guided them along a marvellous way, And became unto them a covering in the day-time, And a flame of stars through the night. She brought them over the Red sea, And led them through much water; But their enemies she drowned, And out of the bottom of the deep she cast them up. Therefore the righteous spoiled the ungodly; And they sang praise to thy holy name, O Lord, And extolled with one accord thy hand that fought for them, O Lord our God.

2. Epistle. Romans 5:1

BRETHREN: Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: by whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; and patience, experience; and experience, hope: and hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

3. Epistle. Romans 8:18

 RETHREN: I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body: in Christ Jesus our Lord.

4. Epistle. 2 Corinthians 6:4

 RETHREN: Let us approve ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings; by pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned, by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, by honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true; as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed; as sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

5. Epistle. Hebrews 11:33

 RETHREN: The saints through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens: women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection: and others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: they were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goat-skins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented: (of whom the world was not worthy;) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. And these all obtained a good report through faith, and were found in Christ Jesus our Lord.

6. Epistle. Revelation 7:13

KN THOSE DAYS: One of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

1. Gospel. Matthew 24:3

AT THAT TIME: As Jesus sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying: Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. All these are the beginning of sorrows.

Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake. And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another. And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

2. Gospel. Matthew 5:1

AT THAT TIME: Jesus, seeing the multitudes, went up into a mountain, and when he was set, his disciples came unto him, and he opened mouth, and taught them, saying: Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven.

3. Gospel. Matthew 11:25

AT THAT TIME: Jesus answered and said: I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight. All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

4. Gospel. Luke 11:47

AT THAT TIME: Jesus said unto the scribes and Pharisees: Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres. Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute: that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; from the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

5. Gospel. Luke 10:16

AT THAT TIME: Jesus said unto his disciples: He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me. And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name. And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven. Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you. Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

THE righteous man shall stand in great boldness Before the face of them that afflicted him, And them that make his labours of no account. When they see it, they shall be troubled with terrible fear, And shall be amazed at the marvel of God's salvation. They shall say within themselves repenting, And for distress of spirit shall they groan, This was he whom aforetime we had in derision, And made a parable of reproach: We fools accounted his life madness, And his end without honour: How was he numbered among sons of God? And how is his lot among saints?

AT THAT TIME: Jesus said unto his disciples: I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Another Epistle. Revelation 19:1

AIN THOSE DAYS: After these things I, John, heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God: for true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand. And again they said, Alleluia. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever. And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia.

And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great. And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunders, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb.

Another Gospel. John 16:20

AT THAT TIME: Jesus said unto his disciples: Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

P¶ In the Common of Confessors, and Virgins, and in other Masses of Eastertide, all is said as in the rest of the year, a double Alleluia being added in the Introit before the Psalm, and at the end of the Offertory and Communion one Alleluia, where it is not given; and the Gradual being omitted, two VV. are said with four Alleluias, as is set down in their places.

Epistle. Ecclesiasticus 44:16

ENOCH pleased the Lord, and was translated, Being an example of repentance to all generations. Noah was found perfect and righteous; In the season of wrath he was taken in exchange for the world; Therefore was there left a remnant unto the earth, When the flood came. Everlasting covenants were made with him, That all flesh should no more be blotted out by a flood. Abraham was a great father of a multitude of nations; And there was none found like him in glory; Who kept the law of the Most High, And was taken into covenant with him: In his flesh he established the covenant; And when he was proved, he was found faithful. Therefore he assured him by an oath, That the nations should be blessed in his seed; That he would multiply him as the dust of the earth, And exalt his seed as the stars, And cause them to inherit from sea to sea, And from the River unto the utmost part of the earth. In Isaac also did he establish likewise, for Abraham his father's sake, The blessing of all men, and the covenant: And he made it rest upon the head of Jacob; He acknowledged him in his blessings, And gave to him by inheritance, And divided his portions; Among twelve tribes did he part them. And he brought out of him a man of mercy, Which found favour in the sight of all flesh.

Gradual. Behold, a great priest, who in his days pleased God. ¶ There was none found like unto him who kept the law of the Most High.

Gospel. Matthew 25:14

AT THAT TIME: Jesus spake this parable unto his disciples: A man travelling into a far country, called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods. And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey. Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents. And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two. But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his

And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more. His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them. His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

Epistle. Hebrews 7:23

REthren: They were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death: but this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh. Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. ¶ The following Epistles and Gospels may be used instead of the ones provided above.

1. Epistle. Hebrews 5:1

 RETHREN: Every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins: who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity. And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

2. Epistle. Hebrews 13:7

 RETHREN: Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation. Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle. For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp. Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach. For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account.

1. Gospel. Luke 11:33

AT THAT TIME: Jesus said unto his disciples: No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light. The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness. Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness. If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

2. Gospel. Mark 13:33

AT THAT TIME: Jesus said unto his disciples: Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is. For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch. Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning: lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping. And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

Epistle. 2 Timothy 4:1

PEARLY BELOVED: I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry.

For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

Gradual. The mouth of the righteous is exercised in wisdom, and his tongue will be talking of judgment. ¶. The law of his God is in his heart: and his goings shall not slide.

Gospel. Matthew 5:13

AT THAT TIME: Jesus said unto his disciples: Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

Offertory. The righteous shall flourish like a palm-tree: and shall spread abroad like a cedar in Libanus (Alleluia).

Another Epistle. Philippians 3:7

BRETHREN: What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, and be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; if by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead. Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

Another Gospel. Luke 19:12

AT THAT TIME: Jesus spake this parable unto his disciples: A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come. But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us. And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds. And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds. And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities. And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin: for I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow. And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow: wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury? And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds. (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.) For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

Epistle. Ecclesiasticus 45:1

BELOVED of God and men, even Moses, Whose memorial is blessed. He made him like to the glory of the saints, And magnified him in the fears of his enemies. By his words he caused the wonders to cease; He glorified him in the sight of kings; He gave him commandment for his people, And shewed him part of his glory. He sanctified him in his faithfulness and meekness; He chose him out of all flesh. He made him to hear his voice, And led him into the thick darkness, And gave him commandments face to face, Even the law of life and knowledge,

Gospel. Matthew 25:1

 AT THAT TIME: Jesus spake this parable unto his disciples: The kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them: but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out. But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. Epistle. 1 Corinthians 7:25

 REthren: Concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful. I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be. Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

But this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none; and they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not; and they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.

But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord: but he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife. There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gospel. Matthew 19:3

AT THAT TIME: The Pharisees came unto Jesus, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, and said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorce, and to put her away? He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry. But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given. For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out. But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not. Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour.

 WILL give thanks unto thee, O Lord, O King, And will praise thee, O God my Saviour: I do give thanks unto thy name: For thou wast my protector and helper, And didst deliver my body out of destruction, And out of the snare of a slanderous tongue, From lips that forge lies, And wast my helper before them that stood by; And didst deliver me, according to the abundance of thy mercy, and greatness of thy name, From the gnashings of teeth ready to devour, Out of the hand of such as sought my life, Out of the manifold afflictions which I had; From the choking of a fire on every side, And out of the midst of fire which I kindled not; Out of the depth of the belly of the grave, And from an unclean tongue, And from lying words, The slander of an unrighteous tongue unto the king. My soul drew near even unto death, And my life was near to the grave beneath. They compassed me on every side, And there was none to help me. I was looking for the succour of men, And it was not. Epistle. Proverbs 31:10

 WHO can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands. She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar. She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens. She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard. She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms. She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night. She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff. She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy. She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet. She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple. Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land. She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant. Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come. She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her. Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all. Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Another Epistle. 1 Timothy 5:3

 EARLY BELOVED: Honour widows that are widows indeed. But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God. Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day. But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth. And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless. But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel. Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man, well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

Gospel. Luke 19:1

AT THAT TIME: Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. And, behold, there was a man named Zacchæus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich. And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature. And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house. And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully. And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner. And Zacchæus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold. And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ Hail, Mary, full of grace; the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. Alleluia.

¶ In Septuagesimatiade or Lent, replacing the Alleluia:

Tract. Rejoice, O Virgin Mary, alone thou hast destroyed all heresies. ¶ Who didst believe the words of the Archangel Gabriel. ¶ Whilst a Virgin thou didst bring forth him who is God and man: and after childbirth, O Virgin, inviolate didst remain. ¶ Mother of God intercede for us.

¶ In Eastertide, replacing the Lesser Alleluia:

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ Now hath blossomed Jesse's rod: a Virgin bears both man and God: God restoreth peace to men, high and low are one again. Alleluia. ¶ Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. Alleluia.

Gospel. Luke 11:27

AT THAT TIME: As Jesus spake to the multitudes, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him: Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked. But he said: Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

Offertory. Hail, Mary, full of grace; the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb (Alleluia).

 THROUGH thy mercy, O Lord, and the intercession of blessed Mary ever Virgin, may this oblation avail for our prosperity and peace, both now and for ever. Through.

Communion. Blessed is the womb of the Virgin Mary, that bore the Son of the everlasting Father (Alleluia).

Postcommunion

 RANT, we beseech thee, O Lord: that we, who have received these aids to our salvation, may at all times and in all places be protected through the advocacy of blessed Mary ever Virgin; in whose honour we have made these offerings to thy majesty. Through.

OFFICE OF SAINT MARY ON SATURDAY

¶ The Hymns are as in the Common of the Blessed Virgin Mary (p. 764).

*Through the YearEvensong

℣. Full of grace are thy lips.

℟. Because God hath blessed thee for ever.

Mag. Ant. O blessed Mother † and spotless Virgin, thou glorious Queen of the world, intercede for us to the Lord.

 RANT, we beseech thee, O Lord God, that we thy servants may enjoy perpetual health of mind and of body: and, at the glorious intercession of blessed Mary ever Virgin, be delivered from present sadness, and rejoice in everlasting gladness. Through.

 EFEND us, we beseech thee, O Lord, from all perils of mind and body: and at the intercession of blessed Joseph, of thy blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, of blessed N. and of all Saints, graciously bestow upon us both peace and safety: that all adversity and error being done away, thy Church may serve thee in untroubled freedom. Through.

Mattins

℣. Blessed art thou amongst women.

℟. And blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

Ben. Ant. O ever blessed Mother of God, † Mary ever Virgin, temple of the Godhead, hallowed shrine of the Holy Spirit, thou only, above all others, wast acceptable to our Lord Jesus Christ: pray for the people, entreat for the clergy, intercede for all womankind vowed unto God.

 RANT, we beseech thee, O Lord God, that we thy servants may enjoy perpetual health of mind and of body: and, at the glorious intercession of blessed Mary ever Virgin, be delivered from present sadness, and rejoice in everlasting gladness. Through.

 EFEND us, we beseech thee, O Lord, from all perils of mind and body: and at the intercession of blessed Joseph, of thy blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, of blessed N. and of all Saints, graciously bestow upon us both peace and safety: that all adversity and error being done away, thy Church may serve thee in untroubled freedom. Through.

After Christmas

¶ From Saturday after the Epiphany Octave through Saturday before Purification.

Evensong

℣. Full of grace are thy lips.

℟. Because God hath blessed thee for ever.

Common of Saints

Saturday BVM

Mag. Ant. Great † is the mystery of the inheritance: the womb of her that knew not man is become the temple of the Godhead: by taking flesh of her, he was no way defiled: all the nations shall gather, saying: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

GOD, who by the virgin child-bearing of blessed Mary hast bestowed upon mankind the rewards of eternal salvation: grant, we beseech thee; that we may perceive her intercession for us, through whom we have been counted worthy to receive the author of life, Jesus Christ thy Son, our Lord. Who liveth.

DEFEND us, we beseech thee, O Lord, from all perils of mind and body: and at the intercession of blessed Joseph, of thy blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, of blessed N. and of all Saints, graciously bestow upon us both peace and safety: that all adversity and error being done away, thy Church may serve thee in untroubled freedom. Through.

Mattins

℣. Blessed art thou amongst women.

℟. And blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

Ben. Ant. A great and wondrous mystery † is made known to us this day; a new thing is wrought in both natures: God is made man; that which was, remained, and that which was not, he assumed; suffering no confusion, nor yet division.

GOD, who by the virgin child-bearing of blessed Mary hast bestowed upon mankind the rewards of eternal salvation: grant, we beseech thee; that we may perceive her intercession for us, through whom we have been counted worthy to receive the author of life, Jesus Christ thy Son, our Lord. Who liveth.

DEFEND us, we beseech thee, O Lord, from all perils of mind and body: and at the intercession of blessed Joseph, of thy blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, of blessed N. and of all Saints, graciously bestow upon us both peace and safety: that all adversity and error being done away, thy Church may serve thee in untroubled freedom. Through.

Eastertide

Evensong

℣. Full of grace art thy lips, alleluia.

℟. Because God hath blessed thee for ever, alleluia.

Mag. Ant. O Queen of heaven, † be joyful, alleluia; Because he whom so meetly thou barest, alleluia, Hath arisen, as he promised, alleluia: Pray for us to the Father, alleluia.

RANT, we beseech thee, O Lord God, that we thy servants may enjoy perpetual health of mind and of body: and, at the glorious intercession of blessed Mary ever Virgin, be delivered from present sadness, and rejoice in everlasting gladness. Through.

 GOD, who didst will that thy Son should for us undergo the burden of the Cross, that he might deliver us from the power of the enemy: grant unto us thy servants that we may attain unto the joy of his resurrection. Through the same.

Mattins

¶ Mattins is as in Evensong.

SEASONAL PRAYERS

Of St. Mary in Advent

Collect

 GOD, who wast pleased that thy Word should take flesh of the womb of the blessed Virgin Mary at the message of an Angel: grant to thy humble servants; that we, who believe her to be truly the Mother of God, may be aided by her intercession in thy sight. Through the same.

Secret

 E beseech thee, O Lord, stablish in our hearts the mysteries of thy true religion: that, as we believe thy Son, conceived of a Virgin, to be very God and very man; so by the power of his life-giving resurrection we may be found worthy to attain unto everlasting felicity. Through the same.

Postcommunion

 E beseech thee, O Lord, pour thy grace into our hearts: that, as we have known the incarnation of thy Son Christ by the message of an Angel; so by his cross and passion we may be brought unto the glory of his resurrection. (Through the same.)

Of St. Mary after Christmas

Collect

 GOD, who by the virgin child-bearing of blessed Mary hast bestowed upon mankind the rewards of eternal salvation: grant, we beseech thee; that we may perceive her intercession for us, through whom we have been counted worthy to receive the author of life, Jesus Christ thy Son, our Lord. (Who liveth.)

Secret

 HROUGH thy mercy, O Lord, and the intercession of blessed Mary ever Virgin, may this oblation avail for our prosperity and peace both now and for ever. (Through.)

Postcommunion

 AY this communion, O Lord, cleanse us from guilt: and at the intercession of blessed Mary the Virgin Mother of God, make us partakers of thy heavenly healing. (Through the same.)

Of Saints

Collect

 DEFEND us, O Lord, we beseech thee, from all dangers of mind and of body: and at the intercession of the blessed and glorious Mother of God, Mary ever Virgin, with blessed Joseph, thy blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, blessed N., and all the Saints, graciously grant us health and peace; that all adversities and errors being done away, thy Church may serve thee in freedom and quietness. (Through the same.)

Secret

 RACIOUSLY hear us, O God our Saviour: and by the power of this sacrament defend us from all enemies of mind and of body; granting us grace in this world, and glory in that which is to come. (Through.)

Postcommunion

 E beseech thee, O Lord, that the gift now offered in this divine sacrament may cleanse and defend us: that at the intercession of blessed Mary the Virgin Mother of God, of blessed Joseph, of thy blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, of blessed N. and of all the Saints; it may set us free from every perverse way, and deliver us from all adversities. (Through the same.)

Against the Persecutors of the Church

Collect

E beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to hear the prayers of thy Church: that all adversities and errors being done away, she may serve thee in freedom and quietness. Through.

Secret

DEFEND us, O Lord, who wait upon thy mysteries: that we, cleaving fast to things heavenly, may serve thee both in body and soul. Through.

Postcommunion

E beseech thee, O Lord our God: that we, whom thou makest to rejoice in the partaking of heavenly things, may by thee be defended against all earthly perils. Through.

For the Chief Bishop

Collect

GOD, the pastor and ruler of all the faithful, mercifully look upon thy servant N., whom thou hast been pleased to set as pastor over thy Church; grant him, we beseech thee, to be in word and conversation a wholesome example to the people committed to his charge; that he with them may attain unto everlasting life. Through.

Secret

OOK favourably, we beseech thee, O Lord, upon the gifts which we offer: and guide with thy continual protection thy servant N., whom thou hast been pleased to set as pastor over thy Church. Through.

Postcommunion

E beseech thee, O Lord, that the divine sacrament which we have here received may be our protection: and together with the flock entrusted to his charge ever save and defend thy servant N.; whom thou hast been pleased to set as pastor over thy Church. Through.

Of the Holy Ghost

Collect

OD, who didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by the sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit: grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things; and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort. (Through . . . in the unity of the same Holy Spirit.)

For the Living and Departed

Collect

LMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hast dominion both of the living and of the dead, and hast mercy upon all who thou foreknowest will be thine in faith and works: we humbly beseech thee; that all those for whom we are minded to pour forth our prayers, whether in this present world they still be held in the flesh, or being delivered from the body have passed into that which is to come, may at the intercession of all thy Saints obtain of thy bountiful goodness the remission of all their sins. Through.

Secret

GOD, to whom alone is known the number of the elect, whom thou hast appointed unto heavenly felicity: grant, we beseech thee: that at the intercession of all thy Saints, the names of all those who have been commended to our prayers, and of all thy faithful people, may ever remain written in the book of those that are predestined to everlasting blessedness. Through.

Postcommunion

LMIGHTY and merciful God, cleanse us, we pray thee, by the sacraments which we have received: and, at the intercession of all thy Saints, grant; that this thy sacrament may not bring upon us guilt to our punishment but pardon to our salvation: that it may cleanse away sins, that it may confirm the feeble, that it may defend us against every danger in this world: that it may obtain for thy faithful people both living and dead the remission of all their sins. Through.
